Triumph Over Darkness (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition) , Challenging Codependency Marguerite Babcock,M. Christine McKay,1995 In the field of addiction research and counselling there has been an increasing investment in the theory of codependency a theory that holds women partly responsible for perpetuating the alcoholism and addiction of their male partners This is the first anthology of feminist essays that presents a cogent critique of this theory The unifying feature of the eighteen essays collected here is the revelation that solid evidence contradicts rather than supports the theory of codependency Its assumptions are found to be unsubstantiated in theory and practice The contributors to the volume explore the history of codependency theory and look at reasons for its growing popularity in medical model politics A central theme emerges that codependency theory is essentially misogynist in nature the result of a male backlash against feminism The collection leaves no doubt that this backlash is effective These essays reveal the many ways that codependency therapy promotes advice and counselling that is damaging and ultimately fails women seeking help for their distress This anthology aimed at professionals as well as readers at large reveals a remarkable body of literature questioning the validity of popular addictions philosophy about women and the quality of the scholarship that supports those theories Publishers Weekly, 1990 Women's Studies Index, 1989 Mental Health Nursing Care Linda Eby, Nancy Jo Brown (RN.), 2005 For Fundamentals of Nursing Psychiatric Mental Health Nursing Psychosocial Nursing and Nursing Specialty LPN LVN courses Part of the LPN LVN specific series this practical guide to applying the nursing process to the care of clients with psychiatric disorders and general clients with psychosocial issues teaches psychiatric mental health nursing as it is really practiced by practical vocational nurses Students are encouraged to develop empathy for clients and critical thinking skills to meet the challenges of client care Case studies client examples and statements from clients in their own words help students understand psychiatric and psychosocial nursing practice The book is written with the knowledge that not all LPN LVN nursing students have the opportunity to have psychiatric nursing clinical experiences All nurses will work with clients who have mental disorders or psychosocial needs Codependent No More Anon Anon, 2022-02-15 The 1 bestseller that has helped heal millions of readers this modern classic holds the key to understanding codependency and unlocking its hold on your life Melody Beattie's compassionate and insightful look into codependency the concept of losing oneself in the name of helping another has helped millions of readers understand that they are powerless to change anyone but themselves and that caring for the self is where healing begins Is someone else's problem your problem If like so many others you've lost sight of your own life in the drama of tending to a loved one's self-destructive behavior you may be codependent and you may find yourself in this book With instructive life stories personal reflections exercises and self tests Codependent No More helps you to break old patterns maintain healthy boundaries and say no to unhealthy relationships It offers a clear and achievable path to freedom and a lifetime of healing hope and happiness This ground-breaking book is even more relevant today as readers confront new urgent challenges with greater self-awareness than it was when it first entered the national conversation over 35 years ago Recovering Couples Carol Cox Smith, 1992 Based on the Twelve Steps and on Smith's program that has helped hundreds of couples this book identifies and helps the reader resolve those relationship issues which surface in the later stages of recovery when addiction is under control Smith outlines reasons for relationship failures and provides advice for resolving conflicts Australian National Bibliography ,1990
