Beyond Self Manage School:

Beyond the Self-Managing School Brian Caldwell, Jim M. Spinks, 2003-09-02 The broad approach of local management of schools or self managing schools is now widely accepted In Britain there is even consensus between the three major political parties that the approach should be continued and extended A key issue though is what comes next for self managing schools Drawing on their work and experience in research consultancy Caldwell and Spinks examine the way in which education is changing and outline what is desirable and workable for schools today with clear guidelines for policy makers and practitioners The focus is specifically on the school the classroom the student and the future of learning in society Practitioners will find this book immediately accessible and useful

Beyond the Self-managing School Brian Caldwell, Jim M. Spinks, 1998 This text examines how education is changing and outlines what is desirable and workable The authors suggest clear guidelines for policy makers and practitioners

Beyond Schooling David H. Hargreaves, 2019-04-11 Provocative and engagingly written Beyond Schooling offers a challenging perspective on State schooling in England and the unrelenting increase in centralisation from the late 1960s until the present day Exploring how the education of our children and young people should be recaptured from the State as the country moves into a precarious future this book argues that any fundamental reconsideration of schooling has much to learn from an anarchist analysis introduces readers unfamiliar with anarchism to the main themes of this political philosophy and practice and their relationship to the political left and right shows how an anarchist perspective on education raises deep issues about the community and the use of power questions the notions of full time schooling and age grading alongside conventional conceptions of the teaching profession and the potential educational role of parents as work declines or disappears In its original reflections on the state of contemporary schooling and the paths to future reform Beyond Schooling is a must read for anyone seeking a new vision for the future of education and schooling

Leadership for Quality Schooling Colin W. Evers, Kam-cheung Wong, 2013-04-15 Leadership for Quality Schooling provides the latest thinking and research on school leadership from a range of international scholars in the field of educational administration Because of the growing acceptance of school based models of school management there is now developing a greater focus on how quality education can be more fully achieved in this increasingly commonplace administrative context Since one major aspect of promoting quality is the role of school leadership this book offers a particular focus on the question of the connection between leadership and school improvement effectiveness and performance Leadership for Quality Schooling will be of interest to educational practitioners students researchers academics and policymakers It is intended as a guide to the latest research on leadership as well as a stimulus to further thought for those looking for alternative ideas to existing practices
