The Collected Works Aldous Huxley,1959 Aldous Huxley Alessandro Maurini,2017-01-30 Aldous Huxley The Political Thought of a Man of Letters argues that Huxley is not a man of letters engaged in politics but a political thinker who chooses literature to spread his ideas His preference for the dystopian genre is due to his belief in the tremendous impact of dystopia on twentieth century political thought His political thinking is not systematic but this does not stop his analysis from supplying elements that are original and up to date and that represent fascinating contributions of political theory in all the spheres that he examines from anti Marxism to anti positivism from political realism to elitism from criticism of mass society to criticism of totalitarianism from criticism of ideologies to the future of liberal democracy from pacifism to ecological communitarianism Huxley clearly grasped the unsolved issues of contemporary liberalism and the importance of his influence on many twentieth century and present day political thinkers ensures that his ideas remain indispensable in the current liberal democratic debate Brave New World is without doubt Huxley s most successful political manifesto While examining the impassioned struggle for the development of all human potentialities it yet manages not to close the doors definitively on the rebirth of utopia in the age of dystopia Aldous Huxley 2009 James Sexton,2011-03-30 Aldous Huxley Annual is the official organ of the Aldous Huxley Society at the Center for Aldous Huxley Studies in Munster Germany The Society publishes essays on the life times and interests of Aldous Huxley and his circle Volume 9 is the first to have a Guest Editor Professor James Sexton Sexton opens this issue with A New Huxley Miscellany which is followed by a selection of lectures from the Fourth International Aldous Huxley Symposium held in Los Angeles in July August 2008 The issue closes with the first Peter Edgerly Firchow Memorial Prize Essay by Brian Smith of Suffolk University Series Aldous Huxley Annual Vol 9
