Beyond the Wire Michael A. Allen, Carla Martinez Machain, Michael E. Flynn, Andrew Stravers, 2023 In a time where US deployments are uncertain this book shows how US service members can either build the necessary support to sustain their presence or create added animosity towards the military presence The United States stands at a crossroads in international security The backbone of its international position for the last 70 years has been the massive network of overseas military deployments However the US now faces pressures to limit its overseas presence and spending In Beyond the Wire Michael Allen Michael Flynn Carla Martinez Machain and Andrew Stravers argue that the US has entered into a Domain of Competitive Consent where the longevity of overseas deployments relies upon the buy in from host state populations and what other major powers offer in security guarantees Drawing from three years of surveys and interviews across fourteen countries they demonstrate that a key component of building support for the US mission is the service members themselves as they interact with local community members Highlighting both the positive contact and economic benefits that flow from military deployments and the negative interactions like crime and anti base protests this book shows in the most rigorous and concrete way possible how US policy on the ground shapes its ability to advance its foreign policy goals Beyond the Wire Peter Shirlow, Kieran McEvoy, 2008-01-20 This book provides the first detailed examination of the role played by former loyalist and republican prisoners in grass roots conflict transformation work in the Northern Ireland peace process It challenges the assumed passivity of former prisoners and ex combatants Instead it suggests that such individuals and the groups which they formed have been key agents of conflict transformation They have provided leadership in challenging cultures of violence developed practical methods of resolving inter communal conflict and found ways for communities to explore their troubled past In analysing this the authors challenge the sterile demonisation of former prisoners and the processes that maintain their exclusion from normal civic and social life The book is a constructive reminder of the need for full participation of both former combatants and victims in post conflict transformation It also lays out a new agenda for reconciliation which suggests that conflict transformation can and should begin from the extremes The book will be of interest to students of criminology peace and conflict studies law and politics geography and sociology as well as those with a particular interest in the Northern Ireland conflict Wireless World and Radio Review ,1922 The Making, Shaping and Treating of Steel James McIntyre Camp, Charles Blaine Francis, 1925 Boy Scouts Beyond the Seas Robert Stephenson Smyth Baden-Powell Baron Baden-Powell of Gilwell, 1913 Tanks in the Wire David B.
