

In writing, the semi-colon is used between two main clauses that are closely related and complement or parallel each other.

At Beyond Words client and biographer work in parallel to listen, record and share a written record of the client's life.

The use of the semi-colon in the logo links 'beyond' and 'words' together and symbolises the shared stories and experiences that impact family and friends.

The overlap in the semi-colon represents the biographer and client coming together to build trust and empathy. It also symbolizes the conversation that informs the biography with the comma representing a speech bubble.
