Creative Process A Psychoanalytic Discussion:

The Creative Process William G. Niederland, Bahman Sholevar, 1982      Creative Analysis George Hagman, 2014-11-20

Creative Analysis Art Creativity and Clinical Process explores the dynamics of creativity in psychoanalytic treatment. It argues that the creative process of the analytic interaction is characterized by specific forms of feeling, thinking, and most importantly relating that result in the emergence of something new, therapeutic change. The artistic aspects of psychoanalysis and various features of creativity in analytic treatment are explored. Clinical examples are discussed at length. George Hagman presents a new model of the psychology of creativity and art that helps us to better understand the clinical process. The book explores and develops several important implications of Hagman's main thesis: the psychodynamics of art, the creativity of the brain, aesthetic aspects of the treatment relationship, the creativity of the analyst and analysis, and change in analysis is driven not just by the analyst's interventions but the patient's own motivation and capacity for self-transformation. This change is depicted here as a depth psychological process which explores the sources of the patient's resistance to self-actualization and identifies hidden potential, unrealized capacities, and strengths. Creative Analysis Art Creativity and Clinical Process reformulates psychoanalytic therapy as a form of art that can help patients realize their potential which may have been blocked, inhibited, denied, or derailed. The book will be of interest to psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, graduates, and students including the educated public interested in art.

Creative States of Mind Patricia Townsend, 2019-03-04

What is it like to be an artist? Drawing on interviews with professional artists, this book takes the reader inside the creative process. The author, an artist and a psychotherapist, uses psychoanalytic theory to shed light on fundamental questions such as the origin of new ideas and the artist's state of mind while working. Based on interviews with 33 professional artists who reflect on their experiences of creating new works of art, as well as her own artistic practice, Patricia Townsend traces the trajectory of the creative process from the artist's first inkling or pre-sense through to the completion of a work and its release to the public. Drawing on psychoanalytic theory, particularly the work of Donald Winnicott, Marion Milner, and Christopher Bollas, the book presents the artist's process as a series of interconnected and overlapping stages in which there is a movement between the artist's inner world, the outer world of shared reality, and the spaces in between. Creative States of Mind: Psychoanalysis and the Artist's Process fills an important gap in the psychoanalytic theory of art by offering an account of the full trajectory of the artist's process based on the evidence of artists themselves. It will be useful to artists who want to understand more about their own processes, to psychoanalysts and psychotherapists in their clinical work, and to anyone who studies the creative process.

Essential Papers on Literature and Psychoanalysis Emanuel Berman, 1993

In a draft attached to a letter to his friend and confidante Wilhelm Fliess, May 31, 1897, Freud develops an idea: The mechanism of fiction is the same as that of hysterical fantasies. He supports this thought with a brief analysis of the biographical sources of Goethe's Werther. A few months later, on October 15, 1897, Freud mails Fliess a detailed account of remembered events from his childhood that Freud believed underlined the universality of Oedipus Rex and Hamlet Freud's foray into literature initiated the beginning of a new critical approach In Essential Papers on Literature and Psychoanalysis Emanuel Berman presents classic and contemporary papers written at the intersection of literature and psychoanalysis In bringing these essays together Berman traces the development of a discipline that has often been plagued by a polarization between self-confident single-minded psychoanalysts reading literature as a series of case studies and literary loyalists who cling to manifest content or to the declared intentions of the authors accepting them at face value and depriving the work of its emotional complexity Berman covers the full range of old and new perspectives and presents selections from today's mature phase This collection includes papers by Sigmund Freud Steven Marcus Patrick J Mahoney Donald Spence Otto Rank Ernest Jones Ernst Kris Phyllis Greenacre Florence Bonime and Maryanne Eckardt David Werman Ellen Handler Spitz Jacques Lacan Shoshana Felman Norman N Holland Roy Schafer Meredith Anne Skura Gail S Reed Francis Baudry Rivka R Eifermann and Bennett Simon

The Creative Process Arthur Asa Berger, 2021-09-16 This fascinating and highly readable book illustrated with many drawings by the author uses semiotics psychoanalytic theory Marxist theory and sociological theory to analyze creativity It also includes short inserts by a communications scholar a psychiatrist a psychoanalyst a semiotician a humor scholar and a media scholar offering their perspectives on the subject The book relates creativity to humor deals with the way Freud's and Marx's ideas can be applied to humor and discusses many aspects of everyday life such as smart speakers TikTok hairstyles bagels and personal taste It argues that creativity is not limited to a small number of people in the arts but that everyone is to varying degrees creative An unusual feature of the book is that it offers notes from the author's journal to show his thinking processes in writing the book
