Bone, Mary J. Scifres, 2014 Gospel Telling Richard J. Coleman, 2002 When was the last time you took a moment to consider the purpose and effectiveness of your children s sermons After all nothing is more important than sowing the seeds of faith early in life In this comprehensive look at all aspects of preaching the gospel to young people Richard Coleman challenges you to examine your approach with a critical eye and gives you plenty of practical guidance for developing simple direct messages that help children form a relationship with Jesus Christ In the first section of Gospel Telling Coleman discusses what constitutes meaningful children s sermons offering a thoughtful rationale for the idea that we must proclaim the gospel so youngsters experience God s love You ll learn how you can mine your own experience for inspiration and proclaim gospel stories that flow from your specific circumstances Then in the second portion of the book you ll see this process at work with over thirty examples illustrating several different types of children s sermons Whether you re a pastor Christian educator or engaged in the teaching ministry you re sure to profit from the practical advice and in depth reflection in these pages With Gospel Telling you ll be equipped to share with young people the good news with creativity and theological integrity Gospel Telling is an enriching book that treats children with the spiritual respect they deserve Richard Coleman understands the transformative language of children play and metaphor and shows how our weekly children s sermons can reach the heart of the child and not simply the mind of the adult This is a must have resource for educators and pastors alike Mickie O Donnell Executive Director Children s Ministries of America Richard Coleman understands the core of the biblical message as well as
