The creative vision; modern European writers on their art, ed Haskell M. Block, The Creative Vision Haskell M. Block, 1961 The Creative Vision. Modern European Writers on Their Art. Edited by H.M. Block, Herman Salinger, 1968 The Creative Vision, 1960 Comparative Literary Dimensions Jay L. The Writer's Book of Memory Janine Rider, 2013-11-05 Memory has long been ignored by rhetoricians because the written word has made memorization virtually obsolete Recently however as part of a revival of interest in classical rhetoric scholars have begun to realize that memory offers vast possibilities for today's writers Synthesizing research from rhetoric psychology philosophy and literary and composition studies this volume brings together many historical and contemporary theories of memory Yet its focus is clear memory is a generator of knowledge and a creative force which deserves attention at the beginning of and throughout the writing process This volume emphasizes the importance of recognizing memory's powers in an age in which mass media influence us all and electronic communication changes the way we think and write It also addresses the importance of the individual memory and voice in an age which promotes conformity Written in a strong lively personal manner the book covers a great deal of scholarly material It is never overbearing and the extensive bibliography offers rich vistas for further study

Post-colonial Shakespeares Ania Loomba, Martin Orkin, 1998 This carefully focused collection of superb new essays explores the multiple possibilities for the study of Shakespeare in an emerging postcolonial period Postcolonial Shakespeares examines the extent to which our assumption about key terms such as colonisation race and nation derive from early modern English culture It also looks at how such terms are themselves affected by what was established subsequently as colonial forms of knowledge The volume features original work by some of the leading critics within the field of Shakespeare studies including Andreas Bertoldi Jerry Brotton Jonathan Burton Jonathan Dollimore Terence Hawkes Margo Hendricks David Johnson Ania Loomba Michael Neill Martin Orkin Avraham Oz Nicholas Visser It is the most authoritative of such collections to date and represents an exciting step forward for both postcolonial and Shakespeare studies
