Daniel Couger, 1994 Educational research reveals that most people demonstrate a great deal of creativity at age 5 Unfortunately their creative output diminishes as they mature due to the factors that stifle creativity in the educational process All of us therefore need assistance in resurfacing our innate creativity Creative Problem Solving and Opportunity Finding discusses the process necessary for facilitating creativity and explains approaches we can use to resurface our own creativity The book also contains key principles and concepts of creativity approaches to removing blocks to creativity and 22 techniques for generating ideas It provides the framework of the Creative Problem Solving methodology to organize the creative process It includes a wide variety of examples and contains a rich blend of theory and practice Dialogue in Instrumental Music Education, 1985 On Metaphysical Necessity Franklin I. Gamwell, 2020-08-01 In this collection of essays Franklin I Gamwell offers a defense of transcendental metaphysics especially in its neoclassical form and builds a case for its importance as a tool for addressing abiding problems in philosophical theology and morality including talk about God human fault moral decision and the relationship of politics and religious freedom In Part I Gamwell argues against Kant and a wide range of contemporary philosophers for the validity of transcendental metaphysics designated in the strict sense He engages with Aquinas Schleiermacher Augustine and Reinhold Niebuhr to argue that neoclassical metaphysics for which the divine whole is itself temporal or forever self surpassing provides a more coherent account of God than does classical metaphysics for which the divine whole is completely eternal In Part II Gamwell looks at transcendental metaphysics designated in the broad sense In particular he takes up the moral opportunity with which humans are presented and argues that the moral law depends on a comprehensive good that is a good defined metaphysically in the strict sense He then offers an extended discussion of the relation between transcendental metaphysics and morality and explores Ronald Dworkin's view of the relationship between democracy and religion the question of whether religious activities are properly exempted from generally applicable laws and the constitutional debate about national and states rights
