Crime and Punishment in Islamic Law Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2019 In Crime and Punishment in Islamic Law A Fresh Interpretation Mohammad Kamali considers problems associated with and proposals for reform of the hudud punishments prescribed by Islamic criminal law and other topics related to crime and punishment in Shariah He examines what the Qur an and hadith say about hudud punishments as well as just retaliation qisas and discretionary punishments ta zir and looks at modern day applications of Islamic criminal law in 15 Muslim countries Particular attention is given to developments in Malaysia a multi religious society federal state and self described democracy where a lively debate about hudud has been on going for the last three decades Malaysia presents a particularly interesting case study of how a reasonably successful country with a market economy high levels of exposure to the outside world and a credible claim to inclusivity deals with Islamic and Shariah related issues Kamali concludes that there is a significant gap between the theory and practice of hudud in the scriptural sources of Shariah and the scholastic articulations of jurisprudence of the various schools of Islamic law arguing that literalism has led to such rigidity as to make Islamic criminal law effectively a dead letter His goal is to provide a fresh reading of the sources of Shariah and demonstrate how the Qur an and Sunnah can show the way forward to needed reforms of Islamic criminal law
