If you've never heard our radio show and this CD case somehow ended up in your hands and you're wondering what the hell - maybe you're standing in the record store choosing between us and some Monty Python or "Speeches of the Pope" reissue that, sadly for everyone involved, is filed in the same Spoken Word bin; or maybe you're staring at your friend's CD collection quietly judging them and their taste - here's what you need to know: This American Life is a weekly radio program. It's heard by 1.5 million people each week, all over the country, by men and women, by moms and their teenage rebel kids, by the fishmonger and the window washer and the guy who comes to fix the copying machine. Why do they listen? Stories. Stories unlike anything else on the radio: stories that unfold like little movies for radio. There are funny moments, there are serious moments, there are surprising situations. Mostly we try to expose ourselves. Unless otherwise noted, the stories are 100% true.
