

THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

1. The criminal procedure code is both substantive & procedural in nature.

Law is a popular term. It is very difficult to give a uniform and precise definition of law. Law has been defined differently by different jurists. The Government prescribes a certain uniformity of human action to be followed by the subjects in day to day for the welfare & progress of the people & the society.

That is known as law. The duty of the state is many fold out of which maintenance of peace in the society and administration of justice are important. Function of law is to maintain law and order in the society and that people can live in peace and pursue their respective goals. Without law people can never be able to live in peace and cannot achieve progress. Law is indispensable for human existence.

Law may be classified in to different divisions. Such as civil law, criminal law, Constitutional law etc. Law also can be divided in to two major categories.

1. Substantive law 2. Adjective law

Adjective law is also known as procedural law. Substantive law defines rights and duties with right, life, liberty and liabilities of individuals, substantive criminal law defines and different offences and provides punishments therefore ,Adjective law on the other hand deals with the procedural aspect of the substantive law. Adjective law prescribes different
