Cri Du Coeur:

Daniel-François-Esprit Auber Robert Ignatius Letellier, 2012-04-25 Daniel François Esprit Auber 1782 1871 the most amiable French composer of the 19th century came to his abilities late in life After a stalled commercial career he studied with Cherubini His first works were not a success but La Bergère Châteleine 1820 written at the age of 38 established him as an operatic composer He then met the librettist Eugène Scribe 1791 1861 with whom he developed a working partnership one of the most successful in musical history that lasted until Scribe's death After Le Maître 1825 and La Muette de Portici 1828 Auber's life was filled with success In 1829 he was appointed a member of the Institut in 1839 Director of Concerts at Court in 1842 Director of the Conservatoire in 1852 Musical Director of the Imperial Chapel and in 1861 Grand Officer of the Légion d'Honneur Auber's famous historical grand opera La Muette de Portici also known by its heroic name as Masaniello is a key work in operatic history and helped to inspire the 1830 revolution in Brussels that led to the separation of Belgium from Holland Auber himself experienced four French Revolutions 1789 1830 1848 1870 The latter the Commune hastened the end of his life He died on 12 May 1871 at the advanced old age of 89 and in the pitiful conditions of civil strife after a long and painful illness which worsened during the Siege of Paris He had refused to leave the city he had always loved despite the dangers and privation even after his house had been set on fire by the pétroleurs et pétroleuses By some irony a mark had been placed against the house of the composer of Masaniello the very voice of Romantic liberty Auber's overtures were once known everywhere a staple of the light Classical repertoire The influence of his gracious melodies and dance rhythms on piano and instrumental music and on the genre of Romantic comic opera especially in Germany was overwhelming The operas themselves apart from Fra Diavolo 1830 have virtually passed out of the repertoire since Auber's elegant and restrained art now has little appeal for the world of music attuned as it is to the meatier substance of verismo high Wagnerian ideology and twentieth century experimentalism Revue d'amour an opéra comique in three acts with libretto by Adolphe Philippe Dennery Adolphe Philippe and Eugène Cormon Pierre Étienne Piastre was first performed at the Opéra Comique Deuxième Salle Favart on 20 December 1869 It was Auber's last work The story is set in the French countryside in the 18th century It concerns the peasant farmer Marcel and the vicissitudes of his love for both his cousin Denise and the wealthy heiress Henriette The latter is in turn however loved by the gallant Chevalier To prove himself Marcel leaves and becomes a successful soldier He is eventually united with Denise while Henriette marries the Chevalier The scenario is without great interest but the score is of musical worth The short binary overture is charming and full of fresh ideas It neatly juxtaposes the two male protagonists and the overall thematic pull between the dream of love and the glory of soldierly prowess It is a lovely pastorate that reaches its climax in a mood of great playfulness Act 2 takes one into the heart of the pastoral experience explored in this opera It opens with a charming scene of Colin Maillard blindman's buff and a Villanelle while the extended finale a lovely waltz followed by Marcel's embracing of the soldier's life counterposes the archetypal

polarity of the pastoral and military traditions of the opéra comique The military solution to the hero's emotional dilemma is also the determining action in Auber's earlier works La Fiancée and Le Philtre For the première stage set one of the charming scenes of Lancret was reproduced complemented by costumes and décor modelled on those of Watteau The Balançoire and the Colin Maillard were ingeniously re-created by the stage designers to sustain the illusion of this last pastoral dream of love The cast consisted of Joseph André Victor Capoul Marcel Mlle Marguerite Marie Sophie Priola Henriette Mlle Maria Dolors Bénédicte Josphine Nau Denise Mlle Caroline Girard Marion Charles Louis Sainte Foy Andoche a peasant Victor Prilleux Bertrand a farmer Pierre Gailhard Le chevalier de Bois Joli and Julien Thomas a peasant The opera was in the repertoire 1869-70 and numbered 27 performances Performances were interrupted in 1870 by the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian War and never resumed
