Crime, Punishment and the Search for Order in Ireland Shane Kilcommins, 2004

Crime, Punishment and Redemption June Slee, 2014-10-01 the love of my life John Ward writing whilst incarcerated on Norfolk Island tells a story of thwarted love that he claims led him to a life of crime including theft sexual assault and more In telling the candid story of his downfall he exposes his own ruthlessness and lack of empathy This book using the diary as its base is fascinating on so many levels It is an insight into the criminal mind ably examined by author June Slee It is a glimpse into 19th century aristocratic life dress food pastimes and prejudices from a servant s perspective Ward was a groom to an officer gentleman And it is a unique record perhaps the only extant diary ever written during the Australian penal era whilst its convict writer was imprisoned Plus Ward records a particular moment in our history not only life aboard prison hulks which he describes in detail but also the timing of his arrival in Sydney when convicts were no longer being accepted he was sent straight to Norfolk Island where we get a fascinating insight into the rule of Captain Alexander Maconochie Moconochie believed in a system of improvement for convicts based on a marks system for good behaviour rather than humiliating punishment In this way Ward gained access to writing materials for his diary It s all in this book love history convicts crime and criminology Norfolk Island The author weaves the diary Ward s own words into her text seamlessly to tell a gripping story Illustrated with over 150 images including paintings photographs documents newspapers and drawings the book includes text box features that elucidate aspects of life at the time oyster bars and eating out disease smuggling county justice convict marriage convict class and society the end of transportation and more June Slee is an experienced writer and researcher lecturer and practitioner in the field of criminology particularly relating to the Australian convict era Slee was immediately drawn to Ward s story not just for its insight into 19th century crime and punishment but also for its outstanding literary style and rarity as a diary that was written while its author was still incarcerated Currently she is completing another book on convictism and has plans for two further books June currently lives in New Zealand
