Crimes Of War A Novel:

Crimes of War Peter Hogg, 2001 A respected retired businessman in Winnipeg well liked by his neighbors is shattered to receive mysterious photographs in the mail Photos of him as a young man in his SS uniform The Special Prosecutions Unit in Ottawa is dedicated to investigating and indicting Nazi war criminals in Canada However they never manage to successfully prosecute a single one Dozens of lawyers historians policemen and clerk amass hundreds of files on suspects most of whom inconveniently die Increasingly demoralized by the prospect of the inevitable closing of the unit many at SPU begin to look forward to the prospect of prosecuting criminals who are not wheel chair bound Dennis Connor a historian is eventually left as the last employee of the SPU charged with the closing all of the files But one file he cannot give up The crimes Friedrich Reile committed with an SS unit on the Eastern Front are so terrible that Connor cannot close the file and forget them And so with no legal recourse Connor begins to send anonymous letters to Reile The letters and photos bring back memories and Reile tells his story of how an ordinary seventeen year old boy gradually turns into a war criminal a mass murderer But Reile for all his monstrous crimes is not a monster Just as Connor who wishes to be a crusading knight in shining armor is in fact a cynical bureaucrat leading a joyless life By showing the human aspect of both these men Peter Hogg brings a new deeper element into what could have been a familiar story With surprising occasional satire juxtaposing mundane office life with terrible crimes against humanity this deserved winner of the Robertson Davies Chapter prize explores the complexities of two men s relationship with evil AUTHOR BIO Peter Hogg is a Criminal Prosecutor in Vancouver Canada specializing in gang and drug related prosecutions Originally from Manitoba he has worked for the Department of Justice in Winnipeg and Calgary From 1993 to 1995 he worked in Ottawa for the War Crimes Unit This is his first novel Crimes of War Richard A. Falk, Gabriel Kolko, Robert Jay Lifton, 1971 French crime fiction and the Second World War Claire Gorrara, 2017-10-03

This study explores France s preoccupation with memories of the Second World War through an examination of popular culture and one of its more enduring forms crime fiction It examines what such popular narratives have to tell us about past and present perceptions of the war years in France and how they relate to post war debates over memory culture and national identity Starting with narratives of the Resistance in the late 1940s and concluding with contemporary crime fiction for younger readers Gorrara examines popular memories of the Second World War in dialogue with the changing social cultural and political contexts of remembrance in post war France From memories of the persecution of Jews and French collaboration to the legacies of the concentration camps and the figure of the survivor witness all the crime novels discussed grapple with the challenges of what it means to live in the shadow of such a past for generations past present and future

American Literature's War on Crime Theodore Martin, 2026-03-31 While the United States was building the world s largest prison system Americans were reading crime novels What did it mean to read crime fiction in a tough on crime era How were fictional stories about crime linked to cultural narratives about criminality class and race What did novels have to do with the making of mass imprisonment in America Theodore Martin offers a groundbreaking account of the ways that reading habits and crime politics intersected in the age of mass incarceration He shows how the War on Crime was waged on the page arguing that fiction made the policies and ideologies of crime control legible to diverse readerships American Literature s War on Crime analyzes dozens of novels from best sellers and prize winners to cult classics and forgotten mass market paperbacks by authors including Mary Higgins Clark James Ellroy Ralph Ellison Donald Goines Sue Grafton Patricia Highsmith Chester Himes Stephen King Walter Mosley and Sister Souljah Rewriting the history of one of the past century s most popular genres this ambitious book reveals how the rise of mass incarceration transformed American crime fiction and how crime fiction became a key battleground in the War on Crime
