Multilevel Regulation of Military and Security Contractors Christine Bakker,Mirko Sossai,2012-02-10 The outsourcing of military and security services is the object of intense legal debate This book analyses and discusses the interplay between international European and domestic regulatory measures in the field of private military and security companies PMSCs

Improperly Obtained Evidence in Anglo-American and Continental Law Dimitrios Giannouloupoulos,2019-02-21 This is the first book to offer an extensive cosmopolitan cross cultural insight into the perennial controversy over the use of improperly obtained evidence in criminal trials It challenges the conventional view that exclusionary rules are idiosyncratic of Anglo American law and highlights the constitutionalisation and internationalisation of criminal evidence and procedure as a cause of rapprochement or divergence beyond the Anglo American and Continental law divide Analysis focuses on confessional evidence and evidence obtained by search and seizure telephone interceptions and other means of electronic surveillance The laws of England and Wales France Greece and the United States are systematically compared and contrasted throughout this study but where appropriate analysis extends to other Anglo American and Continental legal systems The book reviews exclusionary rules vis vis the operation of judicial discretion and explores the normative justifications that underpin them It attempts to reinvigorate the idea of excluding evidence to protect constitutional or human rights the rights thesis arguing that there is significant scope for Anglo American and Continental legal systems to place a renewed emphasis on it particularly in relation to confessional evidence obtained in violation of custodial interrogation rights we can locate an emerging rapprochement and unique potential for European Court of Human Rights jurisprudence to build consensus in this respect In marked contrast remaining divergence with regard to evidence obtained by privacy violations means there is little momentum to adopt a reinvigorated rights thesis more widely Longlisted for the Inner Temple Book Prize 2022

Handbook on Policing in Central and Eastern Europe Gorazd Meško,Charles B. Fields,Branko Lobnikar,Andrej Sotlar,2013-04-16 Policing in Central and Eastern Europe has changed greatly since the fall of the Berlin Wall Some Central and Eastern European countries are constituent members of the European Union while others have been trying to harmonize with the EU and international requirements for a more democratic policing and developments in accordance with Western European and international policing standards especially in regard to issues of legality and legitimacy Changes in the police training system basic and advanced internationalization of policing due to transnationalization of crime and deviance new police organizational structures and agencies have impacted new cultures of policing from exclusively state to plural policing This timely volume examines developments in the last two decade to learn the nature of these changes within Central and Eastern Europe and their impact on police culture as well as on society as a
