Principally Selected from Unpublished Manuscripts. With a Memoir by Edmund Blunden* Ivor Gurney, Edmund Blunden, 1954 The Fire that Breaks Daniel Westover, Thomas Alan Holmes, 2020 In terms of literary history Gerard Manley Hopkins has been difficult to pin down Many of his concerns industrialism religious faith and doubt science language were common among Victorian writers but he is often championed as a proto modernist despite that he avoids the self conscious allusiveness and indirectness that typify much high modernist poetry It is partly because Hopkins cannot be pigeonholed that his influence remains relevant The Fire that Breaks brings together an international team of scholars to explore for the first time Hopkins's extended influence on the poets and novelist who defined Anglo American literature throughout the past century Poems by Ivor Gurney Ivor Gurney, 1954 Words, 1985 Selections from Modern Poets Sir John Collings Squire, 1926 Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade, Karen Karbiener, 2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres The New Penguin Book of English Verse Paul Keegan, 2001 This revolutionary collection abandons the traditional poet by poet approach of most anthologies presenting seven centuries of English verse as an uninterrupted sequence of poems ordered according to their first individual appearance in the language The result is a more continuous view of English verse that reveals a fascinating new chronology Furthermore this volume chronicles the evolution of English verse in linguistic and historical rather than only biographical terms presenting the texts with original spelling and punctuation Through the words of the well known and the anonymous in epitaphs ballads folk poetry and nonsense verse this definitive anthology gives readers the true voice of English poetry as it has developed from the fourteenth to the late twentieth century Great Poems of the English Language, 1927 Poets of World War I John Press, 1983 A volume in the Writers and Their Work series which draws upon recent thinking in English studies to introduce writers and their contexts Each volume includes biographical material an examination of recent criticism a bibliography and a reappraisal of a major work by the writer Collected Critical Writings Geoffrey Hill, 2008 The Collected Critical Writings gathers more than forty years of Hill's published criticism in a revised final form and also adds much new work It will serve as the canonical volume of criticism by Hill the pre eminent poet critic whom A N Wilson has called probably the best writer alive in verse or in prose In his criticism Hill ranges widely investigating both poets including Jonson Dryden Hopkins Whitman Eliot and Yeats and prose writers such as Tyndale Clarendon Hobbes Burton Emerson and F H Bradley He is also steeped in the historical context political poetic and religious of the writers he studies Most importantly he brings texts and contexts into new and telling relations neither reducing texts to the circumstances of their utterance nor imagining that they can float free of them A number of the essays have already established themselves as essential reading on particular subjects such as his analysis of Vaughan's The Night his discussion of Gurney's poetry and his critical account of The Oxford English Dictionary Others confront the problems of language and the nature of value directly as in Our Word is Our Bond Language Suffering and Value and Poetry and Value In all his criticism Hill reveals literature to be an essential arena of civic intelligence     The Times Literary Supplement Index ,1981     PN Review ,2004     After the First Death Tony Curtis,2007 This anthology contains writing by many of the greatest authors of Wales From Wilfred Owen and David Jones Dylan Thomas and Dannie Abse to Christopher Meredith and Gillian Clarke it spans a century which saw both the barbarism of mechanised warfare and the development of mass communication mass literacy and a flourishing of creative endeavour After the First Death draws on the experience of those who have faced death on the battlefield and on others who have sought to put into words the complex philosophical political and emotional responses that military action demands Including poetry extracts from fiction memoirs letters and biography the book moves from World War One via the ideological battleground of the 1930s into the Second World War then through the Cold War Vietnam the Falklands and the Gulf wars Tony Curtis is Professor of Poetry at the University of Glamorgan where he directs an MPhil in Writing He has published 26 books including nine poetry collections most recently Heaven's Gate 2001 A selection of his poetry has recently been translated and published in Armenia     The Bloodaxe Book of 20th Century Poetry from Britain and Ireland Edna Longley,2000 This volume draws the poetic line of the century not through culture defining groups but through the work of the most significant poets of our time
