Collected Poems And Selected Prose Of Charlotte Mew:

Collected Poems and Selected Prose Charlotte Mary Mew, 1997 Charlotte Mew's rhyming free verse aligns her to the early modernists and her themes and style make her central to female concerns This edition prints all her known poems plus examples of her work in every other genre she tried short story essay and play

Selected Poetry and Prose Charlotte Mary Mew, 2019 The 1935 Selected Poems introduced by T S Eliot brought Marianne Moore's fastidious and inimitable work to the attention of a wider public for the first time

Selected Poems Charlotte Mary Mew, 2008 In her tragically short life Charlotte Mew produced poetry that was intense emotional original and praised by her contemporaries Dylan Thomas Ezra Pound Thomas Hardy and Virginia Woolf Gathered together by Ireland's most distinguished modern female poet this collection includes a diverse range of her work dealing with pain love and feminist themes

Women, Modernism and British Poetry, 1910-1939 Jane Dowson, 2017-03-02 Primarily a literary history Women Modernism and British Poetry 1910-1939 provides a timely discussion of individual women poets who have become or are becoming well known as their works are reprinted but about whom little has yet been written This volume recognizes the contributions overlooked previously of such British poets as Anna Wickham Nancy Cunard Edith Sitwell Mina Loy Charlotte Mew May Sinclair Vita Sackville West and Sylvia Townsend Warner and the impact of such American poets as H D Amy Lowell Edna St Vincent Millay Marianne Moore and Laura Riding on literary practice in Britain This book primarily maps the poetry scene in Britain but identifies the significance of the network of writers between London New York and Paris It assesses women's participation in the diversity of modernist developments which include avant garde experiments quiet but subtly challenging formalism and assertive new woman voices It not only chronicles women's poetry but also their publications and involvement in running presses bookshops and writing criticism Although historically situated it is written from the perspective of contemporary debates concerning the interface of gender and modernism The author argues that a cohering aesthetic of the poetry is a denial of femininity through various evasions of gendered identity such as masking male and female impersonations and the rupturing of realist modes

Queer Allusion Florian Gargaillo, 2025-12-02 Queer Allusion uncovers the crucial but underexamined role played by literary allusion in shaping queer poetry on both sides of the Atlantic from the trial of Oscar Wilde in 1895 to the Stonewall Riots of 1969 In this wide ranging erudite study of influence and personal expression Florian Gargaillo identifies three major functions of allusion for LGBTQ poets First allusion enabled writers to process their experiences through literary antecedents and thus shape their identities in writing Second allusion provided a means to establish connections with other authors at a time when LGBTQ communities were often isolated and clandestine Finally establishing links across multiple works helped build a queer literary canon running parallel to the traditional contours of English language verse Gargaillo shows that allusion's particular appeal for queer poets lay in its blend of secrecy and openness LGBTQ poets employed allusion to understand themselves connect with others and establish an alternative underground poetic tradition Queer

Allusion thus provides an innovative framework for studying LGBTQ poetry tracing lineages from figures like Wilde to A E Housman and Countee Cullen who are rarely considered together due to differences in style period or movement Through incisive close readings and contextual analysis this book offers a new map of LGBTQ literary history and a new way to view the relationship between queer poets and the poetic past Collected Poems and Selected Prose Charlotte Mew,2003

of literary neglect Charlotte Smith 1749 1806 is now being recognized as a major poet and modern figure whose Romantic sensibility is an expression of a specifically female experience This selection provides an ideal introduction to the full range of her work from her influential sonnets and poems for children to extracts from her French Revolution poem The Emigrants and the full text of her astonishing masterwork Beachy Head Old English Poems and Riddles ,2008 Including riddles charms the major elegies religious meditations such as The Dream of the Rood epics such as The Battle of Maldon and several long sections from Beowulf this book of translations indicates the variety and attractiveness of pre Conquest forms of literary composition Even a specimen passage of rhythmical prose is included a kind of semi verse that supports the view that Old English offered many structural possibilities for those wishing to compose memorable and distinctive literary works

Above all the translator tries to show that Old English verse was not merely crudely alliterative but a set of stylistic techniques which allowed for great subtlety thematic pacing and even tenderness Selected Poetry Hugh

MacDiarmid,2004 Drawing on the literary and vernacular traditions of Scottish culture Hugh MacDiarmid s creates modern literature that is both nationalistic and international in its range This selection of his poetry explores the diversity of his writing from delicate lyrics to fierce polemic The Book of Repulsive Women and Other Poems Djuna Barnes,2003

Djuna Barnes 1892 1982 once described herself as the most famous unknown writer and although her novel Nightwood is celebrated her poetry has been a well kept secret until now This selection the only one currently available contains work written between 1914 and the 1970s Many of the poems in The Book of Repulsive Women first appeared in pamphlets and literary journals in New York and Paris Published together for the first time they throw new light on Barnes development as a writer The book reveals her as a poet of unique power at once compelling and disorientating Marianne Moore observed reading Djuna Barnes is like reading a foreign language which you understand The Book of Repulsive Women includes previously unpublished poems and five illustrations by Barnes herself Rebecca Loncraine provides an essential introduction to Barnes poetry Collected Poems and Prose Charlotte Mary Mew, Val Warner, 1982 The Fin-de-siècle Poem Joseph Bristow, 2005 Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars The Fin de Siecle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siecle poetry the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde s The Picture of Dorian Gray The Anatomy of Melancholy Robert Burton, 2004 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book Liber Amoris and Related Writings William Hazlitt, 2008 For three years the middle aged writer William Hazlitt was both enchanted and tormented by his landlord s teenage daughter Sarah Walker One of the great classics of Romantic autobiography Liber Amoris is the chronicle of that obsession an extraordinary account that leaves us in continual doubt about who was the seducer and who was the victim Writing during this crisis period of Hazlitt s life becomes the desperate search for an antidote Whether it be the self lacerating candour of Liber Amoris the simple stoical masculinity of The Fight the social and sexual snobbery of On the Disadvantages of Intellectual Superiority or the dry cynicism of Characteristics all the pieces collected here can be seen as aspects of Hazlitt s emotional and intellectual preoccupation with Sarah Walker In this edition Gregory Dart brings Liber Amoris and Hazlitt s related writings together for the first time and provides a wealth of fascinating notes that take us deep into the writer s
