of colonial wars As narrated by Parkman in A Half Century of Conflict 1892 these American campaigns while only part of a larger global struggle prepared the colonies for the American Revolution In Montcalm and Wolfe 1884 Parkman describes the fatal confrontation of the two great French and English commanders whose climactic battle marked the end of French power in America As the English colonies cooperated for their own defense they began to realize their common interests their relative strength and their unique position In this imperial war of European powers we also begin to see the American figures Benjamin Franklin George Washington soon to occupy a historical stage of their own
