globally Published in English      Religious Soft Diplomacy and the United Nations Sherrie M. Steiner, James T. Christie, 2021-04-21 The engagement of religious diplomacy within the United Nations systems has become increasingly important for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals The editors argue that effective religious diplomacy must reflect the great diversity of religious and spiritual expressions within human communities The editors argue that this can best be achieved through a worldview shift within the United Nations systems Religious engagement in the United Nations systems has been understandably constrained by limited and formal organizational structures and conventions However the existing patterns of engagement mitigate against the very goals they seek to achieve The editors argue that expanded yet measured religious inclusion will strengthen social cohesion in the global community Contributors demonstrate how communities become stronger when marginalized minority voices are included in public discourse The editors further argue that governance has a responsibility to ensure a safe environment for this interaction The editors propose that the United Nations adopt the posture of loyal opposition that is inherent in parliamentary democracies to serve as a guideline for expanded religious engagement The contributors advance this proposal with illustrations from multiple contexts that address a diverse array of social problems from perspectives rooted in theory and practice      Political Illusion and Reality David W. Gill, David Lovekin, 2018-09-27 Are all governments east and west Muslim and secular authoritarian and constitutional Republican and Democratic fundamentally the same all of them under the extraordinary growing power of technique and bureaucracy Is all politics then just an illusory affair of lies deception propaganda partisan passions and chaos on the surface of government and party In his vast and penetrating writings Bordeaux sociologist Jacques Ellul 1912 1994 points in those directions Political Illusion and Reality is a collection of twenty three essays on Ellul s political thought Veteran as well as younger Ellul scholars political leaders activists and pastors discuss aspects of Ellul s thought as they relate to their own fields of study and political experience Beginning with his 1936 essay Fascism Son of Liberalism translated and published here in English for the first time Ellul and these authors will provoke readers to think some new thoughts about politics and government and think more deeply about the main issues we face in our politically divided and troubled times      The Art of Living for A Technological Age Ashley John Moyse, Scott A. Kirkland, 2021-02-23 The Art of Living for A Technological Age sketches the crisis of our late modern age where persons are enamored by the promises of progress and disciplined to form by the power of technology the ontology of our age Yet it also offers a response attending to those performative activities educative and transformative social practices that might allow us to live humanly and bear witness to human being becoming for a technological age As such it is an exemplary example of the goals and outcomes of the Dispatches series the individual volumes of which draw on diverse theological resources in order to offer urgent responses to contemporary crises Authors in the series introduce succinct and provocative arguments intended to provoke dialogue and exchange of ideas while setting in relief the implications of theology for political and moral life      The Book Review Digest ,2007      Athens and
