Collecting and Interpreting Qualitative Materials Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 1998 9/11 in American Culture Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 2003-01-29 In response to the events following September 11 2001 a number of leading cultural studies and interpretive qualitative researchers write from their own experiences and hearts These essays by noted scholars Kellner Fine McLaren Richardson Denzin Giroux and others were written in crisis within days and weeks of September 11 The immediacy of their writing is refreshing and reflects the varied emotional and critical responses that bring meaning to this event From the poetic to the personal the theoretical to the historical these contributions represent intelligent and reflective responses to crises This collection of essays allows the contributors to tell us how they made sense of these tragic events and predicts what the place of the humanities and the social sciences might hold in an age of terror The articles were originally published in journals Qualitative Inquiry and Cultural Studies Critical Methodologies Visual Data, 2009-01-01 The visual inputs we receive can be collectively called visual data Precisely how one defines visual data is a key question to ask That is one of the questions we asked each author who wrote a chapter for this book If one comes to a decision with respect to what visual data are then the next question becomes What are visual data like Then What do they mean As with any data we can collect it and compile it but if we don't have some way to bring meaning it it has little value to us The answers may not be as straightforward as one might assume at the outset The extent to which visual data permeates what we do as educators is such that it may be difficult to identify every discipline in which it emerges In this book we have tried to provide a forum for authors from a cross section of common disciplines visual arts English literacy mathematics science social science and even higher education administration Research Methods in Educational Leadership and Management Ann R J Briggs, Marianne Coleman, Marlene Morrison, 2012-04-12 This classic guide continues to be the leading Research Methods text that specifically deals with Educational Leadership and Management The collection boasts an array of high profile international expert contributors covering a wide range of specialisms emphasising the importance of the critically engaged practitioner Accessible and user friendly this edition has been fully revised and updated to take full account of online research It features new authors more case studies and examples and brand new chapters on research Design grounded research ethnography discourse analysis narrative Life history student voice Whether you are postgraduate an academic or a practitioner researcher if you are investigating Research Methods Leadership Management or Educational Research this is the book you will need Ethnography Brewer, John,2000-12-01 Although written as a textbook the contents are research led informed by the author s own extensive experience of undertaking ethnographic research in dangerous and sensitive locations in Northern Ireland and elsewhere EBOOK: Becoming a Researcher: A Research Companion for the Social Sciences Mairead Dunne,John Pryor,Paul Yates,2005-07-16 This innovative book combines what most books separate research as practical activity and research as intellectual engagement It clarifies and makes explicit the methodological issues that underlie the journey from initial research idea to the finished report and beyond The text moves the researcher logically through the research process and provides insights into methodology through an in depth discussion of methods It presents the research process as an engagement with text This theme moves through the construction of text in the form of data and the deconstruction of text in analysis Finally the focus moves to the reconstruction of text through the representation of the research in the report Following through each of these stages in turn the chapters consider either a practical issue or a group of methods and interrogate the associated methodological concerns In addition the book also addresses the rarely explored issues of the researcher as writer and researcher identity as core elements of the research process The book provides a range of insights and original perspectives These successfully combine practical guidance with the invitation to consider the problematic nature of research as social practice It is an ideal reference for those embarking on research for the first time and provides a new methodological agenda for established researchers Annual Meeting Program - American Educational Research Association American Educational Research Association,1997 Tourism in China David Airey,King Chong,2011-04-20 This is the first book to set the development of tourism in China since 1949 in its policy context Underpinned by a strong conceptual framework this systematic study of China contributes to an in depth understanding of how public policy making for tourism works and how it affects the development of tourism in the real world The text explores tourism policy during three distinct leadership periods since creation of the People s Republic of China in 1949 The attitudes and values of leaders and central government agencies towards tourism are considered as well as the interactions of ideological orthodoxies socioeconomic conditions and institutions in their influence on national policy making and tourism development A separate chapter is devoted to policy making in Hong Kong and Macau as well as Taiwan Drawing on China s experience over 60 years the book concludes with both theoretical and practical implications for tourism policy making Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,1998 Research Methods in Educational Leadership and Management Marianne Coleman,Ann R J Briggs,2002-08-09 The book is notably successful in the way it combines a review of the principles and methods of research with recent advances in the field The editors claim that it is core reading for those undertaking masters and doctoral level research is well met School Leadership and Management Success of this book is measured by the clarity and coverage of key principles for developing research The audience is treated to an engaging primer that covers all aspects of research By commencing with epistemology ontology and methodology in a non threatening fashion a tone is set that guides the reader through the technical aspects of research in a friendly fashion Journal of Higher Education Policy and Management In a competitive field of educational research methods this book offers those interested in educational leadership and management an alternative conceptualization of research methods and will no doubt help those researching in this field Gill Nicholls British Journal of Educational Studies It can be strongly recommended as an introductory text for students engaged in virtually any field of educational research and readers of this journal should not be deterred by its specialist title Eric Hoyle Escalate The attempt to contextualize methodology does make the work more accessible than other more general texts and it will therefore be particularly useful to those beginning to develop a research approach to their professional context Sue Crowley Learning and Skills Research There are many texts and courses on research methods Each university will have a handful covering the full range of types of research What differentiates this book for Association for Tertiary Education Management ATEM members is the inviting focus on the education sector A consistent theme differentiates and explains the nuances of positivist and phenomenological research By comparing and contrasting qualitative and quantitative methods the reader can confidently place where their own research question sits The text brought me to the point of being clear what are the issues that required deeper thought and the method to access further literature Micheal Koorndyk University of Adelaide Australia This book is the essential guide to research in educational leadership and management It brings together expert original contributions to present a comprehensive and accessible resource for new and experienced researchers in the field The book deals with the concept of research and its philosophical bases fundamental issues like ethics validity and reliability exploring existing literature to inform research the nature of survey case study and action research research tools interviews questionnaires documentary research and diaries observation analysis and presentation of quantitative and qualitative research data writing up and disseminating research This book is a core text for master s level courses in educational management It is accessible for the beginning researcher while at the same time providing stimulating reading for students and practitioners with some research experience

Gender, Religion, and Diversity Ursula King, Tina Beattie, 2004 Gender Religion and Diversity provides an introduction to some of the most challenging perspectives in the contemporary study of gender and religion In recent years gender and women s studies have transformed the international study of religion through their use of interdisciplinary and cross cultural methodologies which have opened up new and highly controversial issues challenging previous paradigms and creating fresh fields of study As this book shows gender studies in religion raises new and difficult questions about the gendered nature of religious phenomena the relationship between power and knowledge the authority of religious texts and institutions and the involvement and responsibility of the researcher undertaking such studies as a gendered subject range of researchers from different countries and fields of religious studies The range and diversity of their contributions is the very strength of this book for it shows how gendering works in studying different religious materials whether foundational texts from the Bible or Koran philosophical ideas about truth essentialism history or symbolism the impact of French feminist thinkers such as Irigaray or Kristeva or critical perspectives dealing with the impact of race gender and class on religion

Resources for Nursing Research Cynthia Clamp, Stephen Gough, 1999-09-20 Fully revised and updated the third edition of this invaluable bibliography of sources of literature for nurses includes over 2760 entries 64 per cent of which are new This comprehensive yet concise guide is designed for convenience and ease of use and covers all aspects of nursing and allied health research with accessible and informative entries compiled within three sections The first covers the process of literature searching libraries and tools print and electronic for accessing literature In the second methods of inquiry are presented The final section discusses issues surrounding nursing research The book includes an extended section on electronic sources as well as many web site addresses and is design Egerton Journal ,2000 Pragmatics ,2004

The Taming of Cocaine Tom Decorte, 2000 Based on longitudinal ethnographic fieldwork in the Antwerp club scene and repeated in depth interviews with 111 experienced cocaine users the overall theme of the book is the genesis and the development of informal control mechanisms social sanctions and rituals among these illegal drug users The Belgian data are compared consistently to the findings of other comparable community studies in European and American cities Amsterdam Rotterdam Barcelona Turin San Francisco Toronto and in Scotland and Australia Data Analysis for Social Workers Denise Montcalm, David Daniel Royse, 2002 This user friendly text is designed specifically for social work students who are intimidated by the prospect of taking a Statistics course With its engaging conversational writing style and numerous examples and problems social work students will quickly learn to understand and interpret both quantitative and qualitative data The text s flexibility makes it suitable for a variety of teaching styles Instructors who want their students to get the actual feel of computing a chi square can use the Formula Alerts to calculate certain statistics manually other instructors may want students to use the step by step computer applications to produce the same results
