A Collection of Classic Southern Humor II George William Koon, 1986 Essays and short stories by authors such as Eudora Welty Tennessee Williams and Truman Capote provide a humorous view of life in the American South

A Collection of Classic Southern Humor George William Koon, 1984 The range of these stories is as broad as the South itself Included are Eudora Welty's classic piece about sibling rivalry and John Kennedy Toole's Pulitzer Prize winning account in A Confederacy of Dunces traditional stories of Southern good old boys and girls who are forever having head on collisions with each other and with modernity like Harry Crews' characters or like Lewis Grizzard's faith healer or like Florence King's debutantes the darker humor born of an extraordinary ability to understand and accept human nature Flannery O'Connor and Lisa Alther These pieces range from work by some of America's best known fiction writers through the best of the essayists who have brought Southern ways to the New Journalism ISBN 0 931948 55 X 12 95

The Sporting World of the Modern South Patrick B. Miller, 2002 Engaging a medley of perspectives and methodologies these collected essays explore the sport related symbols and events that have shaped southern regional identities since the Civil War The authors range from the backcountry fighter stereotypes portrayed in modern professional wrestling to the significance of Crimson Tide coaching legend Paul Bear Bryant for white Alabamians while other essays tackle gender and race relations in intercollegiate athletics the roles athletic competitions played in desegregating the South and NASCAR's popularity in southern states Pairing the action and anecdotes of good sportswriting with rock solid scholarship The Sporting World of the Modern South adds historical and anthropological perspectives to legends and lore from the gridiron to the racetrack

Still in Print Jan Nordby Gretlund, 2013-01-23 An insightful guidebook to some of the best examples of modern Southern fiction as selected by an international group of critics In Still in Print eighteen southern novels published since 1997 fall under the careful scrutiny of an international cast of accomplished literary critics to identify the very best of recent writings in the genre These essays highlight the praiseworthy efforts of a pantheon of novelists celebrating and challenging regionality unearthing manifestations of the past in the present and looking to the future with wit and healthy skepticism Organized around shared themes of history place humor and malaise the novels discussed here interrogate southern culture and explore the region's promise for the future Four novels reconsider the Civil War and its aftermath as Charles Frazier Kaye Gibbons Josephine

Humphreys and Pam Durban revisit the past and add fresh insights to contemporary discussions of race and gender through their excursions into history. The novels by Steve Yarbrough, Larry Brown, Chris Offutt, Barry Hannah, and James Lee Burke demonstrate a keen sense of place rooted in a South marked by fundamentalism, poverty, violence, and rampant prejudice but still capable of promise for some unseen future. The comic fiction of George Singleton, Clyde Edgerton, James Wilcox, Donald Harington, and Lewis Nordan shows how southern humor still encompasses customs and speech reflected in concrete places. Ron Rash, Richard Ford, and Cormac McCarthy probe the depths of human existence, often with disturbing results, as they write about protagonists cut off from their own humanity and desperate to reconnect with the human race. Diverse in content but unified in genre, these particular novels have been nominated by the contributors to Still in Print for long-term survival as among the best modern representations of the southern novel.
