Collection of Peacekeeping-Inspired Poetry Connie P. Frias, 2005-03-30 This book depicts the love of nature and people by this author who worked for the United Nations and its peacekeeping operations in three troubled countries of the world The nineteen poems in this collection are of varied subjects During her leisure time while she was temporarily assigned to those troubled countries she devoted herself to writing articles and poems just as a brain twister In this book the author talks of the various inspirations that led her to write the poems After retirement from the United Nations this author started to gather and compile all her poems some of which are filled with emotions as a mother and as a friend some are tributes to famous people and international personalities some are delightful and pleasant and some are of ordinary living and love of nature Each poem tells a story and the book is very informative to read one that you will not put down until you reach the conclusion a must read book

Peacemaking, Religious Belief and the Rule of Law Paul J. Zwier, 2017-12-14 This book offers a new way of understanding the role of the mediator in teaching parties the interrelationship between sustainable peace forgiveness and international justice It argues that the arrival of social media presents new opportunities for reaching sustainable peace agreements through their use in gathering the detailed information that can match victims and perpetrators of past atrocities The author aims to advance a more expansive understanding of the subjects and limitations of making peace in the shadow of international law by examining the concepts of mediation and forgiveness that exist alongside law To that end the book offers an account of the role of the mediator that emerges from the interplay between Ricoeurian imagination and forgiveness and predicts ever greater opportunities for making peace and protecting human rights that can be facilitated by a harnessing of social media as a tool for making peace with justice The author also aims to examine how strategies for sustaining the peace must combat the inevitable frustrations with democracy that can lead to a slide into dictatorship Assad Obama and the UN leadership and their decisions concerning making and maintaining peace in Syria are used as case studies to examine the interplay between a leader's religious beliefs
