Walker,Beverly Baer,1990-04 The Index provides a broad coverage and access to book reviews in the general social sciences humanities sciences and fine arts as well as general interest magazines and includes journals from Great Britain Canada Switzerland Israel and Australia In addition it indexes several journals that while published in the US concentrate on reviewing foreign published or foreign language books These include Hispania French Review German Quarterly and World Literature Today Publishers Weekly ,1979 The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1885 Victorian Jewelry, Identity, and the Novel Jean Arnold,2016-03-16 In this study of Victorian jewels and their representation Jean Arnold explores the role material objects play in the cultural cohesion of the West Diamonds and other gems Arnold argues symbolized the most closely held beliefs of the Victorians and thus can be considered prisms of culture Mined in the far reaches of the empire they traversed geographical space and cultural boundaries representing monetary value and evoking empire class lineage class membership gender relations and aesthetics Arnold analyzes the many roles material objects fill in Western culture and surveys the cross cultural history of the Victorian diamond uncovering how this object became both preeminent and representative of Victorian values Her close readings of Wilkie Collins s The Moonstone George Eliot s Middlemarch William Makepeace Thackeray s The Great Hoggarty Diamond and Anthony Trollope s The Eustace Diamonds show gendered aesthetic economic fetishistic colonial legal and culturally symbolic interpretations of jewelry as they are enacted through narrative Taken together these divergent interpretations offer a holistic view of a material culture s affective attachment to objects As the assigned meanings of jewels turn them into symbols of power personal relationships and valued ideas human interactions with gems elicit emotional responses that bind the materialist culture together The Victorian Geopolitical Aesthetic Lauren M. E. Goodlad,2015 How did realist fiction alter in the effort to craft forms and genres receptive to the dynamism of an expanding empire and globalizing world Do these nineteenth century variations on the geopolitical aesthetic continue to resonate today Crossing literary criticism political theory and longue dur e history The Victorian Geopolitical Aesthetic explores these questions from the standpoint of nineteenth century novelists such as Wilkie Collins George Eliot Gustave Flaubert and Anthony Trollope as well as successors including E M Forster and the creators of recent television serials By looking at the category of sovereignty at multiple scales and in diverse contexts Lauren M E Goodlad shows that the ideological crucible for high realism was not a hegemonic liberalism It was rather a clash of modern liberal ideals struggling to distill themselves from a powerful conservative vision of empire while striving to negotiate the inequalities of power which a supposedly universalistic liberalism had helped to generate The material occasion for the Victorian era's rich realist experiments was the long transition from an informal empire of trade that could be celebrated as liberal to a neo-feudal imperialism that only Tories could warmly embrace The book places realism's geopolitical aesthetic at the heart of recurring modern experiences of breached sovereignty forgotten history and subjective exile The Coda titled The Way We Historicize Now concludes the study with connections to recent debates about surface reading distant reading and the hermeneutics of suspicion
