Collision Of Two Civilisations:

The Collision of Two Civilisations Alain Peyrefitte, 1993 Side the newly discovered secret reports of the Emperor's officials all personally annotated by the Emperor himself Peyrefitte is able to tell this remarkable story from both sides and from multiple perspectives on each side Superbly translated by Jon Rothschild The Immobile Empire is history at its most gripping and entertaining Early Encounters between East Asia and Europe Ralf Hertel, Michael Keevak, 2017-07-14 While inquiries into early encounters between East Asia and the West have traditionally focused on successful interactions this collection inquires into the many forms of failure experienced on all sides in the period before 1850 Countering a tendency in scholarship to overlook unsuccessful encounters it starts from the assumption that failures can prove highly illuminating and provide valuable insights into both the specific shapes and limitations of East Asian and Western imaginations of the Other as well as of the nature of East West interaction Interdisciplinary in outlook this collection brings together the perspectives of sinology Japanese and Korean studies historical studies literary studies art history religious studies and performance studies The subjects discussed are manifold and range from missionary accounts travel reports letters and trade documents to fictional texts as well as material objects such as tea chinaware or nautical instruments exchanged between East and West In order to avoid a Eurocentric perspective the collection balances approaches from the fields of English literature Spanish studies Neo Latin studies and art history with those of sinology Japanese studies and Korean studies It includes an introduction mapping out the field of failures in early modern encounters between East Asia and Europe as well as a theoretically minded essay on the lessons of failure and the ethics of cross cultural understanding The Quakers in the American Colonies Rufus Matthew Jones, Isaac Sharpless, Amelia Mott Gummere, 1911 Japan W. Petrie Watson, 1904 Japan, Aspects & Destines W. Petrie Watson, 1904 Japan Watson W Petrie, 1904 Borrowed Gods and Foreign Bodies Eric Reinders, 2004-11-15 Borrowed Gods and Foreign Bodies explores the Western imagination of the Chinese body in Protestant missionary encounters with Chinese religion 1807 1937 Quarterly Bulletin of the National Library of South Africa, 2012 The Spectator, 1880 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Life and Writings of Julio C. Tello Richard L. Burger, 2009-06 The father of Peruvian archaeology Julio Tello was the most distinguished Native American scholar ever to focus on archaeology A Quechua speaker born in a small highland village in 1880 Tello did the impossible he received a medical degree and convinced the Peruvian government to send him to Harvard and European universities to master archaeology and anthropology He then returned home to shape modern Peruvian archaeology and the institutions through which it was carried out Tello's vision remains unique and his work has taken on additional interest as contemporary scholars have turned their attention to the relationship among nationalism ethnicity and archaeology Unfortunately many of his most important works were published in small journals or newspapers in Peru and have not been available even to those with a reading knowledge of Spanish This volume thus makes available for the first time a broad sampling of Tello's writings as well as complementary essays that relate these writings to his life and contributions. Essays about Tello set the stage for the subsequent translations. Editor Richard Burger assesses his intellectual legacy. Richard Daggett outlines his remarkable life and career and John Murra places him in both national and international contexts. Tello's writings focus on such major discoveries as the Paracas mummies, the trepanation of skulls from Huarochir, Andean iconography and cosmology, the relation between archaeology and nationhood, archaeological policy and preservation, and the role of science and museums in archaeology. Finally, the bibliography gives the most complete and accurate listing of Tello's work ever compiled. With its abundance of coups, wars, political dramas, class struggle, racial discrimination, looters, skulls, mummies, landslides, earthquakes, accusations and counteraccusations, The Life and Writings of Julio C. Tello will become an indispensable reference for Andeanists. The Synchronisation of Civilisations in the Eastern Mediterranean in the Second Millennium B.C. SCIEM 2000. EuroConference, 2007. M. Wiener's key lecture entitled 'Times change: The current state of the Debate in Old World Chronology' provides the volume's introduction, followed by the section 'Science and Chronology' which includes among others several controversial studies on the results of carbon 14 dating. An important point for the ongoing discussion on Aegean chronology is made by Pearce et al. who demonstrate that certain traces in Greenland ice core layers previously taken to be stemming from the Minoan eruption of Thera in fact originate from eruptions of the Aniakchak volcano in Alaska. The volume next includes articles that deal with historical chronology and archaeological evidence arranged in the sections 'Egypt, The Levant and Syria' and 'The Aegean, Cyprus and adjacent regions'. In addition to reports and analyses dealing with many aspects of the chronology and archaeology of these regions, this part also contains M. Bietak's study on all wall paintings from Egypt, Israel, Syria and the Levant considered to be Minoan. Western Culture in Eastern Lands Á.
