resource for students approaching this difficult subject for the first time      The World's Major Languages Bernard Comrie, 2018-04-17 The World's Major Languages features over 50 of the world's languages and language families. This revised edition includes updated bibliographies for each chapter and up-to-date census figures. The featured languages have been chosen based on the number of speakers, their role as official languages, and their cultural and historical importance. Each language is looked at in depth, and the chapters provide information on both grammatical features and on salient features of the language's history and cultural role. The World's Major Languages is an accessible and essential reference work for linguists.

Borneo Tamara Thiessen, 2012. Straddling the equator, Borneo is the third largest island in the world. Largely covered in rainforest with a magnificent coastline, it is easy to see what attracts visitors. Comprised of Sabah, Sarawak, and Brunei, Borneo's unique biodiversity and cultural kaleidoscope appeals to both adventurers and those looking for a unique cultural experience. Updated throughout, this revised guide caters for all, with information on how to trek through one of the region's national parks, catch a glimpse of an orang utan, spend the night in a longhouse, or shop in the bustling markets. From the highlands and islands of Sabah and Sarawak to the mosques and mysticism of the Sultanate of Brunei, Borneo is a mesmerizing mix of cultures, endangered animals, tropical rainforest, and carnivorous plants. This new edition of Borneo provides the most comprehensive information available on the island, from its ethnographic and natural history to accommodation and tours.

Topicalization in Asian Englishes Sven Leuckert, 2019-01-10. Shortlisted for the 2020 ESSE Book Award in English Language and Linguistics. This monograph is the first comprehensive study of topicalization in Asian second language varieties of English and provides an in-depth analysis of the forms, functions, and frequencies of topicalization in four Asian Englishes. Topicalization, that is, the sentence-initial placement of constituents other than the subject, has been found to occur frequently in the English spoken by many Asians, but so far, the possible reasons for this have never been scrutinized. This book closes this research gap by taking into account the structures of the major contact languages, the roles of second language acquisition and politeness, as well as other factors, in order to explain why topicalization is highly frequent in some varieties such as Indian English and much less frequent in other varieties such as Hong Kong English. In addition to exploring major and minor forces involved in explaining the frequency of topicalization, the forms and functions of the feature are assessed. Central questions addressed in this regard are the following: Which syntactic constituents tend to be topicalized the most and the least frequently? Which discourse effects does topicalization achieve? How can we approach topicalization methodologically? And lastly, which influence do language processing and production have on topicalization.
