Collected Poems Of Sally Purcell:

Collected Poems Sally Purcell, 2002 A collection of poems of a poet whose works often drew on folklore and mediaeval sources

Sally Purcell Sally Purcell, 1976

Robert Browning: Selected Poems John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2013-11-19 Robert Browning 1812-1889 was one of the defining figures of the Victorian age Famous in his lifetime for his elopement and marriage to Elizabeth Barratt his critical reputation grew steadily in the years following her early death Browning's mastery of dramatic verse was evident throughout his career from such chillingly unforgettable monologues as My Last Duchess and Porphyria to the mature work included in his collection Dramatis Personae This selection chosen by leading scholars reveals the innovation complexity and profound psychological insight that have ensured Browning's enduring reputation and his continuing appeal to readers today Browning Selected Poems results from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of the writer's work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the development of Browning's art An introduction and chronology offer useful background material whilst annotations and headnotes provide details of composition publication sources and contemporary reception This authoritative yet accessible selection should become the first point of reference for scholar student and general reader alike

Poetry and the Fate of the Senses Susan Stewart, 2002-01-20 What is the role of the senses in the creation and reception of poetry How does poetry carry on the long tradition of making experience and suffering understood by others With Poetry and the Fate of the Senses Susan Stewart traces the path of the aesthetic in search of an explanation for the role of poetry in culture Herself an acclaimed poet Stewart not only brings the intelligence of a critic to the question of poetry but the insight of a practitioner as well Her new study includes close discussions of poems by Stevens Hopkins Keats Hardy Bishop and Traherne of the sense of vertigo in Baroque and Romantic works and of the rich tradition of nocturnes in visual musical and verbal art Ultimately she argues that poetry can counter the denigration of the senses in contemporary life and can expand our imagination of the range of human expression Poetry and the Fate of the Senses won the 2004 Truman Capote Award for Literary Criticism in Memory of Newton Arvin administered for the Truman Capote Estate by the University of Iowa Writers Workshop It also won the Phi Beta Kappa Society's 2002 Christian Gauss Award for Literary Criticism

The Enduring Melody Michael Mayne, 2006 When he was in his fifties Michael Mayne formerly the vicar of Great St Mary's in Cambridge and Dean of Westminster Abbey was cruelly afflicted with ME but transformed personal adversity through his pen writing with Gerald Priestland an account of his illness A Year Lost and Found that continues to be helpful to ME sufferers worldwide Sadly in the health lottery Mayne seems to have drawn the short straw In 2005 he was diagnosed with cancer of the jaw and found himself overnight in what he calls cancer country perhaps the most merciless terrain in the world

Fifty Fifty Robyn Marsack, 2020-12-21 A Book of the Year 2019 in The Morning Star This is a rare glimpse into the inner workings of a small ambitious press over a period of radical transformation in publishing Each of Carcanet s fifty years is marked by an exchange of letters handwritten typed and now emailed between an author and the editor Beginning in 1969 with the response to an invitation to subscribe to Carcanet for two guineas the book traces Carcanet s progress and offers insight into the nature of literary editing At its heart is the personal relationship of author and editor publisher the conflicts friendships and vicissitudes that occur at the nexus between the work its creator publisher and reader Poets are central but fiction writers translators biographers and critics also contribute to the Carcanet ferment and firmament Fifty Fifty celebrates the writers readers and editor s risks passions and pleasures Catalogue of Little Press Books in Print Published in the United Kingdom ,1974 Words of Love Pamela Norris,2006 Offering a social and cultural history of the development of romantic love this book explores women s interpretations of love and presents the ways in which women over the centuries have responded to conventions of romance gender and status as well as the societies in which they moved and lived Women Poets, Male Publishers Lise Jaillant,2025-03-17 We are often told that the women s movement of the 1960s and 1970s led to the rediscovery of forgotten women writers Without feminist presses such as Virago these women would have sunk into obscurity Thanks to Carmen Callil and other trailblazing feminist publishers a canon of women s literature emerged and living writers managed to survive and sometimes thrive in a literary marketplace that had so far been dominated by men Although obstacles remained the story is one of the triumphs over a misogynistic publishing industry a sector that had once sought to erase women writers of the past marginalise living authors and close the doors to any future legacy There are two problems with this oft repeated story First it focuses mainly on fiction rather than poetry founded in 1973 Virago did not start publishing poetry until the early 1980s Second it neglects the major role that conservative male publishers played in re discovering women poets in post 1960s Britain With the growing influence of the Women s Liberation movement these publishers realised that there was a growing market for poetry by women At the same time the Arts Council of Great Britain started pushing for more diversity nudging its clients to make more room for women and ethnic minorities Drawing on extensive archival work and oral history interviews this open access book pushes the boundaries of a scholarship that has focused mainly on women s poetry in relation to women s presses Archival documents show the influence of the Arts Council and the market in pushing conservative publishers towards more diversity This evolution has had long term consequences on the canon of women s poetry a canon that was largely shaped by conservative publishing houses rather than radical feminist presses Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1976 Books and Bookmen ,1973 Contemporary Poets Tracy Chevalier,1991 Contains biographical entries a list of separately published books and an essay on each poet Contemporary Poets James Vinson,D. L. Kirkpatrick,1985 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 The British National Bibliography Cumulated Subject Catalogue ,1968 The Spaces of Hope Peter Jay,1998 Anvil s 30th Anniversary anthology showing the full diversity and consistent high quality of the press Stand Jon Silkin,1981 Stand Magazine

,1999 Poetry Harriet Monroe,1977 From a Diary of Non-events Michael Hamburger,2002 Sequence of poems capturing the revered British poet's life from December 2000 to November 2001
