Irish London Richard Kirkland, 2021-08-12 Winner of the 2022 British Association of Irish Studies BAIS Book Prize In the years following the Irish Famine 1845 52 London became one of the cities of Ireland The number of Irish in London swelled to over 100 000 and from this mass migration emerged a distinctive and vibrant culture based on a shared sense of history identity and experience In this book Richard Kirkland brings together elements in Irish London s culture and history that had previously only been understood separately or indeed largely overlooked as in the case of women s contributions to London Irish politics and culture In particular Kirkland makes resonant cultural connections between Irish and cockney performers in the music halls Irish trade fairs temperance marches the Fenian dynamite war of the 1880s St Patrick s Day events and the later cultural agitation of revivalists such as W B Yeats and Katharine Tynan Irish London A Cultural History 1850 1916 is both a significant contribution to our understanding of Irish emigrant communities in London at this time and an insightful case study for the comparative fields of cultural history and urban migration studies
