Collision Or Collusion? The Congress, the President, and the Ambiguity of War Powers William Montgomery Raymond (Jr), 1993 I examine the interactions between a president and members of Congress during foreign policy crises involving the use of American forces and I address the questions Why do members of Congress continually assert their constitutional rights on war powers yet acquiesce to executive encroachment of those same rights Why do presidents and members of Congress perpetuate the ambiguity about war powers To explore the impact of the War Powers Resolution WPR on executive congressional relations I compare two U S interventions that occurred before its passage Lebanon 1958 and Dominican Republic 1965 to two that occurred after Mayaguez 1975 and Grenada 1983 I also examine four non interventions Dien Bien Phu 1954 Pueblo 1968 Angola 1975 and Nicaragua 1980s to consider whether the WPR has had a restraining influence on presidents and to identify those factors in a crisis that distinguish an intervention from a non intervention Collision Or Collusion? William Montgomery Raymond,1993 Colluding, Colliding, and Contending with Norms of Whiteness Jennifer L.
