Autogenic Structures Evan Douglas, 2013-10-31 This book offers an alternative vision for the future of architecture a timely and invaluable contribution to the debate concerning emergent surfaces and the next generation of building membranes in this era of extreme computational control Areas covered include the future relationship between structure and ornament the value of mass customization for the next generation of modular building components the role of smart materials in creating a sustainable universe Critical essays are combined with cutting edge work to form an inspiring manual of varied digital and analog techniques Highly illustrated with over 300 photographs illustrations and drawings Autogenic Structures is for anyone curious to learn about a visionary approach to the development of architecture Urban Design Ecologies Brian McGrath, 2013-01-14 The discipline of urban design is undergoing a rapid expansion and realignment It is experiencing a shift from a profession dominated by architects and planners directed at urban development to a more expansive set of practices engaging new forms of social and environmental ecologies as cities worldwide adapt to economic restructuring mass migrations and climate change Bringing together classic and new texts from the last 40 years this AD

Reader focuses attention on the critical tools needed to understand how cities have been designed and constructed and then changed over time This enables new ways of envisioning how cities must be conceived and adapted in the future to the dual conditions of rapid urbanisation and economic restructuring coupled with unpredictable environmental conditions due to climate change With its emphasis on both urban design and the ecological this book brings together key articles that point the way forward for reconciling the often conflicting concerns of urbanism and environmentalism Twenty three texts are organised into four distinct sections covering metropolitan architecture the sprawling megalopolis the megacity and the recently emerging metacity These are broadly chronological and highlight the recent thinking behind some of the key urban developments ranging from the art of traditional city making covered by European architects and historians in the late 20th century to contemporary Tokyo described by Atelier Bow Wow Features original texts from Reyner Banham Rem Koolhaas Aldo Rossi Colin Rowe David Grahame Shane Bernard Tschumi Oswald Mathias Ungers and Robert Venturi Denise Scott Brown and Steven Izenour Contains newly commissioned texts from Mary Cadenasso Sharon Haar and Victoria Marshall Carlos Leite Steward TA Pickett and Albert Pope Includes new translations of important essays by Vittorio Gregotti and Paola Vigan Topics range from the European historic city to the Las Vegas Strip and the megacity of S o Paulo taking in the global sustainable city

Making Smart Cities More Playable Anton Nijholt,2019-07-23 This book explores the ways in which the broad range of technologies that make up the smart city infrastructure can be harnessed to incorporate more playfulness into the day to day activities that take place within smart cities making them not only more efficient but also more enjoyable for the people who live and work within their confines The book addresses various topics that will be of interest to playable cities stakeholders including the human computer interaction and game designer communities computer scientists researching sensor and actuator technology in public spaces urban designers and hopefully urban policymakers This is a follow up to another book on Playable Cities edited by Anton Nijholt and published in 2017 in the same book series Gaming Media and Social Effects
