Altogether Elsewhere Writers On Exile:

Altogether Elsewhere Marc Robinson, 1996-03-01 After the Fall Noemi Marin, 2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Siavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance Polyphony Embodied - Freedom and Fate in Gao Xingjian's Writings Michael Lackner, Nikola Chardonnens, 2014-06-23 Like artists important writers defy unequivocal interpretations Gao Xingjian winner of the Nobel Prize in literature is a cosmopolitan writer deeply rooted in the Chinese past while influenced by paragons of Western Modernity The present volume is less interested in a general discussion on the multitude of aspects in Gao s works and even less in controversies concerning their aesthetic value than in obtaining a response to the crucial issues of freedom and fate from a clearly defined angle The very nature of the answer to the question of freedom and fate within Gao Xingjian s works can be called a polyphonic one there are affirmative as well as skeptical voices But polyphony as embodied by Gao is an even more multifaceted phenomenon Most important for our contention is the fact that Gao Xingjian s aesthetic experience embodies prose theater painting and film Taken together they form a Gesamtkunstwerk whose diversity of voices characterizes every single one of them Conrad Without Borders Brendan Kavanagh, Grazyna Maria Teresa Branny, Agnieszka Adamowicz-Pospiech, 2022-12-01 A diverse and multinational volume this book showcases the passages of Joseph Conrad s narratives across geographical and disciplinary boundaries focusing on the transtextual and transcultural elements of his fiction Featuring contributions from distinguished and emergent Conrad scholars it unpacks the transformative meanings which Conrad s narratives have achieved in crossing national cultural and disciplinary boundaries Featuring studies on the reception of Conrad in modern China an exploration of Conrad s relationship with India a comparative study of the hybrid art of Conrad and Salman Rushdie and the responses of Conrad s narratives to alternative media forms this volume brings out transtextual relations among Conrad s works and various media forms world narratives philosophies and emergent modes of critical inquiry Gathering essays by contributors from Canada Hong Kong India Japan Norway Poland Taiwan the United Kingdom and the United States this volume constitutes an inclusive transnational networking of emergent border crossing scholarship Exile Literature Dino S. Cervigni, 2002 Stravinsky and His World Tamara Levitz, 2013-08-25 A new look at one of the most important composers of the twentieth century Stravinsky and His World brings together an international roster of scholars to explore fresh perspectives on the life and music of Igor Stravinsky. Situating Stravinsky in new intellectual and musical contexts, the essays in this volume shed valuable light on one of the most important composers of the twentieth century. Contributors examine Stravinsky's interaction with Spanish and Latin American modernism, rethink the stylistic label neoclassicism with a section on the ideological conflict over his lesser-known opera bu ffa Mavra, and reassess his connections to his homeland, paying special attention to Stravinsky's visit to the Soviet Union in 1962. The essays also explore Stravinsky's musical and religious differences with Arthur Louri, delve into Stravinsky's collaboration with Pyotr Suvchinsky and Roland Manuel in the genesis of his groundbreaking Poetics of Music, and look at how the movement within stasis evident in the scores of Stravinsky's Orpheus and Oedipus Rex reflected the composer's fierce belief in fate. Rare documents, including Spanish and Mexican interviews, Russian letters, articles by Arthur Louri, and rarely seen French and Russian texts, supplement the volume, bringing to life Stravinsky's rich intellectual milieu and intense personal relationships. The contributors are Tatiana Baranova, Leon Botstein, Jonathan Cross, Val rie Dufour, Gretchen Horlacher, Tamara Levitz, Kl ra M ricz, Leonora Saavedra, and Svetlana Savenko.

Polish, Hybrid, and Otherwise George Z. Gasyna, 2011-05-05 Examines the ways in which language identity and a sense of cultural belonging intersect in Conrad's and Gombrowicz's novels and other writings. Studies in the Literary Imagination, 2019

Exile and Creativity Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1998 A major historical phenomenon of our century, exile has been a focal point for reflections about individual and cultural identity and problems of nationalism, racism, and war. Whether emigr's, exiles, expatriates, refugees, or nomads, these people all experience a distance from their homes and often their native languages. Exile and Creativity brings together the widely varied perspectives of nineteen distinguished European and American scholars and cultural critics to ask: Is exile a falling away from a source of creativity associated with the wholeness of home and one's own language, or is it a spur to creativity? In essays that range chronologically from the Renaissance to the 1990s, geographically from the Danube to the Andes, and historically from the Inquisition to the Holocaust, the complexities and tensions of exile and the diversity of its experiences are examined. Recognizing exile as an interior experience as much as a physical displacement, this collection discusses such varied topics as intellectual exile and seventeenth-century French literature, different versions of home, and of the novel in the writings of Bakhtin and Luk cs, the displacement of James Joyce and Clarice Lispector, a young journalist's meeting with James Baldwin in the south of France, Jean Renoir's Hollywood years, and reflections by the descendants of European emigr's. Strikingly, many of the essays are themselves the work of exiles, bearing out once more the power of the personal voice in scholarship. With the exception of the contribution by Henry Louis Gates Jr, these essays were originally published in a special double issue of Poetics Today in 1996. Exile and Creativity will engage a range of readers, from those whose specific interests include the problems of displacement and diaspora and the European Holocaust to those whose broad interests include art, literary, and cultural studies, history, film, and the nature of human creativity Contributors Zygmunt Bauman Janet Bergstrom Christine Brooke Rose H l ne Cixous Tibor Dessewffy Marianne Hirsch Denis Hollier Henry Louis Gates Jr Linda Nochlin Leo Spitzer Susan Rubin Suleiman Thomas Pavel Doris Sommer Nancy Huston John Neubauer Ernst van Alphen Alicia Borinsky Svetlana Boym Jacqueline Ch nieux Gendron The Theater of Maria Irene Fornes Marc Robinson,1999 Throughout the anthology textual analysis is balanced with production criticism Contributors assess Fornes s connection to the various traditions that have claimed her absurdism realism and surrealism among others Several critics reveal Fornes s range by delving deeply into individual plays particularly the landmark Fefu and Her Friends Her work as a director is captured in rehearsal logs interviews with her actors and a sampling of production reviews from 1965 to 1993 The anthology closes with Fornes s own views on her work in statements and interviews from each stage of her career More than twenty production photographs accompany the text
