principles and ways of creating and his experiences as a citizen architect and sculptor As he wanders he talks smokes sings tells of his troubles and protests about things that lack meaning all the while sketching the slim silhouette of a woman who expresses the quiet pleasure of someone who has just raised her glass to toast another person whose own glass is also visible in Siza s delicate drawing It is a voyage that spans the architect s life and memory squeezed into a form of time that is simultaneously past present and future In it the master architect from Porto shows his affection for the people who through their silence or their words have been or still are somewhere on his horizon People and architecture that throb in the hands of a tireless draughtsman architect and sculptor who true to his Portuguese roots is in love with the oceans of beauty and life
