An Intimate Look At Wine:

An Intimate Look at Wine Michael Charles Lapmardo, 1996 Wine Country Chef's Table Roy Breiman, Laura Borrman, 2012-11-20 Centered on the world's premier winemaking region and renowned culinary destination Wine Country Chef's Table offers an intimate look at a region that thousands of travelers often just taste. It is a regional cookbook and travelogue offering gems of recipes along with restaurant, winery, and farm stories to both locals and visitors alike. The book features great chefs, farmers, and food artisans from the distinct parts of the California wine country, spanning both the Napa and Sonoma valleys. Wine Country Mary Whitesides, 2004 Provides a richly illustrated tour of the homes and lifestyles of nineteenth-century winemakers throughout the Napa and Sonoma valleys, capturing a sophisticated, gracious style of living that reflects the old world styles of Italy, France, and South America in such locales as Villa Pietra, Quintessa Winery, and Far N. Napa Wine Charles L. Sullivan, 2008-10-01 Charles Sullivan's Napa Wine: A History is the engaging story of the rise to prominence of what many believe to be the greatest winegrowing area in the Western hemisphere. This new edition completes that picture, bringing to light more than a decade of dramatic changes and shifted norms visited upon the valley: from phylloxera-wasted vineyards to High Court officiated territorial battles, told in a rousing, transportive narrative. Beginning in 1817 with the movement of Spanish missions into the San Francisco Bay area, Sullivan winds his way through the great wine boom of the late 19th century, the crippling effect of Prohibition, and Napa's rise out of its havoc to its eventual rivaling of Bordeaux in the judgments of 1976 and 2006. Published in cooperation with the Napa Valley Wine Library, the book includes historic maps, charts of vineyard ownership, and vintages from the 1880s to present. The Winemaker's Hand Natalie Berkowitz, 2014-06-03 In these fascinating interviews, winemakers from the United States and abroad clarify the complex process of converting grapes into wine, with more than forty vintners candidly discussing how a combination of talent, passion, and experience shape the outcome of their individual wines. Each winemaker details their personal approach to the various steps required to convert grapes into wine. Natalie Berkowitz speaks to winemakers from different backgrounds who work in diverse wine-producing regions, including Chile, England, France, Germany, Greece, Israel, Italy, Portugal, Slovenia, Spain, and the United States. They talk about familiar and unfamiliar grape varieties, their struggles with local terroirs, and the vagaries of Mother Nature. Some represent small family wineries with limited production, while others work for corporations producing hundreds of thousands of bottles. Each individual offers rare insight into how new technologies are revolutionizing historic winemaking practices. The interviews are supplemented with personal recipes and maps of winemaking regions. An aroma wheel captures the vast array of wine's complex flavors and aromas. The treasury of modern anecdote, ed. with notes and intr. by W.D. Adams William Henry Davenport Adams, 1881 The Treasury of Modern Anecdote William Davenport Adams, 1881 Cole's Insiders Guide to the Wines & Vines of Sonoma County Austin Peter Moss, 1990 Invading the Realm of Demons, Disease, and Death Carl E. Roemer, 2024-01-29 This study of the miracles attributed to Jesus in the Gospels begins with a survey of the sciences because in our present cultural context materialism is the dominant approach to and understanding of our world of history and of our very selves. If the materialist's understanding is true then there is no such thing as miracles because every event must occur as the result of some previous material events. Contemporary biblical scholarship mostly approaches the miracle stories from a materialist point of view. It questions their historicity because they violate what has now become the entrenched modus operandi in our culture and society operating with the idea that the universe is a closed nexus of cause and effect. The miracles are understood then as products of the community and not historical reports although according to this line of scholarship they may be based on some vague recollection of Jesus's activity that somehow had healing effects. Modern science however as one scientist has put it in climbing the mountain of knowledge has reached its peak and found a theologian at the top. The sciences in other words have led to the implication that our universe has a creator and that the universe and the human genome have been designed.
