An Introduction to Auckland Museum Auckland Institute and Museum,1986-01-01      Museums and empire John M. MacKenzie,2017-03-01 Museums and Empire is the first book to examine the origins and development of museums in six major regions of the British Empire in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It analyses museum histories in thirteen major centres in Canada South Africa Australia New Zealand India and South East Asia setting them into the economic and social contexts of the cities and colonies in which they were located Written in a lively and informative style it also touches upon the history of many other museums in Britain and other territories of the Empire A number of key themes emerge from its pages the development of elites within colonial towns and cities the emergence of the full range of cultural institutions associated with this and the reception and modification of the key scientific ideas of the age It will be essential reading for students and academics concerned with museum studies and imperial history and to a wider public devoted to the cause of museums and heritage      Records of the Auckland Museum ,1998      An Introduction to Auckland Museum B. Brake,G. S. Park,1985-11

South Pacific Museums Chris Healy,Andrea Witcomb,2006 South Pacific Museums Experiments in Culture is a collection of outstanding analyses of museums in the South Pacific written by cultural museum and architectural critics and historians A series of snapshots introduce the reader to key museums in the region and longer essays explore these museums in broad terms Over the last 50 years museums have been regarded by many scholars and cultural critics as archaic institutions far from the cutting edge of cultural innovation This judgement is being proved wrong across the globe with innovative museums staking out new territory Nowhere is this more striking than in the South Pacific where new and redeveloped institutions have included the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa the National Museum of Australia the Melbourne Museum the Australian Centre for the Moving Image the Museum of Sydney the Gab Titui Cultural Centre in the Torres Strait the Auckland Museum the Centre Culturel Tjibaou and the Vanuatu Cultural Centre South Pacific Museums make sense of these museums as part of the complex field of heritage where national economies meet global tourism cities brand themselves and indigeneity articulates with colonialism The effect is one of cultural experimentation Part One New Museums introduces three different museums in distinctive national contexts Te Papa the Centre Culturel Tjibaou and the National Museum of Australia Essays in this part grapple with the role of these museums in the nation at particular historical moments under specific political pressures Part Two New Knowledges documents practices and exhibitions at the point of tension between indigenous and non indigenous interests in the museum Part three New Experiences explores the ways in which museums in the South Pacific are producing that ineffable cultural phenomenon experience      The Routledge Companion to Indigenous Repatriation Cressida Fforde,C. Timothy McKeown,Honor Keeler,2020-03-05 This volume brings together Indigenous and non Indigenous repatriation practitioners and researchers to provide the reader with an international overview of the removal and return of Ancestral Remains The Ancestral Remains of Indigenous peoples are today housed in museums and other collecting institutions globally They were taken from anywhere the deceased can be found and their removal occurred within a context of deep power imbalance within a colonial project that had a lasting effect on Indigenous peoples worldwide Through the efforts of First Nations campaigners many have returned home However a large number are still retained In many countries the repatriation issue has driven a profound change in the relationship between Indigenous peoples and collecting institutions It has enabled significant steps towards resetting this relationship from one constrained by colonisation to one that seeks a more just dignified and truthful basis for interaction The history of repatriation is one of Indigenous perseverance and success The authors of this book contribute major new work and explore new facets of this global movement They reflect on nearly 40 years of repatriation its meaning and value impact and effect This book is an invaluable contribution to repatriation practice and research providing a wealth of new knowledge to readers with interests in Indigenous histories self determination and the relationship between collecting institutions and Indigenous peoples
