Tetteh

Quarshie. The Ascension of a Pioneering Cocoa Farmer to a Ghanaian "lieu de mémoire" Tim R. Kerkmann,2019-11-12

Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject History Africa grade 1 0 Humboldt University of Berlin Institut f r Asien und Afrikawissenschaften course Agriculture and Colonialism in Africa language English abstract This paper aims at examining the mythical figure Quarshie and its interpretation How have the narratives about the beginnings of cocoa cultivation in the Gold Coast changed throughout the 20th century and how was Tetteh Quarshie constructed as an enduring national lieu de m moire that has continued to trigger fascination within the Ghanaian society This paper will try to give an answer to this question The paper proceeds in three steps Firstly it presents the introduction of cocoa into the Gold Coast in order to enlighten this complex process marked by a few different actors among these prominently stands Quarshie Different sources as well as assessments in the later literature are analysed in this context The second chapter deals with the evolution and structures of the ensuing cocoa boom in Ghana that despite temporal declines still continues today As many historians have underscored cocoa cultivation was successfully performed by local smallholder farmers largely independent from British influence as a consequence the construction of Quarshie as a lieu de m moire further accentuates the indigenous and emancipatory character of the Ghanaian cocoa industry In a third step the commemorative culture about the beginnings of cocoa cultivation in the Gold Coast is retraced from earlier diverging interpretations to the incremental exaltation of Quarshie Both theoretical literature on commemoration culture and topical Ghanaian newspaper articles are thereby used In fact the current project of the Tetteh Quarshie Cocoa Museum proves that cocoa and its history remain at the core of the Ghanaian self image and that Quarshie s name seems indispensable in this regard It is thus high time to track down this highly questionable narrative of the cocoa introduction in the Gold Coast which has not been done yet in detail In addition a goal on the theoretical meta level of the paper is to underline the merits of the lieux de m moire approach particularly in the West African context where this has not yet been widely applied
