Introduction to Islamic Law Ahmed Akgunduz, 2010-01-01 The world today has become one large village Muslims and non Muslims live side by side and have to learn about one another share commonalities and respect differences At this time more than one and a half billion Muslims live in this village Some of them are pious Muslims trying to live in accordance with Islamic rules whereas others do not while believing that these rules come from God the Qur an from interpretations of His Messenger the Sunnah or the consensus of Muslim jurists ijm and are at least rules derived via analogy qiy s from the main sources of Islam Most Muslims think along these lines and agree with the above The reader should remember that Muslim individuals should live according to Islamic rules in private but no individual is responsible for implementing Islamic law In any event the need to learn the facts about Islamic law is necessary for Muslims as well as for non Muslims if they live in the same society with Muslims at least in the sense of general information In any event the need to learn the facts about Islamic law is necessary for Muslims as well as for non Muslims if they live in the same society with Muslims at least in the sense of general information We should keep in mind here that only sovereign Muslim states governments have the legal authority to implement Islamic law An individual Muslim has no legal authority or power to implement Islamic law The law of Islam certainly does not say that every Muslim is obliged to implement Islamic law It matters not how efficient and popular that individual may be as a brave warrior or a meticulous planner of unlawful and immoral schemes of hatred terror and destruction Only people who are properly qualified and trained and hold a license from Muslim governmental authorities have the authority to issue fatw s Not every Muslim individual qualifies as a Muft a jurist consult or scholar of law who has been given a license to issue fatw s For this reason Bediuzzaman says And we know that the fundamental aims of the Qur an and its essential elements are fourfold divine unity al tawh d prophethood al nubuwwah the resurrection of the dead al hashr and justice al adalah Al Ad lah means law He adds in another treatise Let our ulul amr satesmen and political authorities think over implementing these rules This book is divided into eight chapters Chapter I Because of the many misunderstandings that arise some terms related to Islamic Law such as Shar ah fiqh q n n urf Islamic Law and Muhammadan Law are explained Chapter II Here in this chapter dedicated to references on Islamic Law the real added value of this book is found Chapter III This chapter looks at four periods of Islamic Law the period of the Prophet Muhammad the period of the Companions the period of the Tabi n and an introduction to the period of Mujtahid n Chapter IV We will provide detailed information here on the different law schools and theological divisions Chapter V This chapter will be devoted to a period of Islamic law that has been neglected in both old and new books and articles i e the period of Islamic Law after the Turks converted to Islam 960 1926 Chapter VI This chapter will focus also on three main subjects Anglo Muhammadan law Indo Muslim law Syariah or Islamic Law in Southeast Asia and Islamic Law in contemporary Muslim states like Egypt Pakistan Morocco Indonesia and Jordan Chapter VII We will explain the system and methodology of Islamic Law in this chapter Chapter VIII We will give some brief information here on the implementation of Islamic Law its future some encyclopedical works on Islamic law and new institutions of Islamic fiqh

Jonathan G. Burns, 2014-01-09 I highly recommend Introduction to Islamic Law Principles of Civil Criminal and International Law under the Shari a to scholars and any individual who desires to learn about the Shari a and its basic values through an objective methodical study Mohamed A Arafa Ph D Assistant and Adjunct Professor of Law Alexandria University Faculty of Law Egypt Islamic law Shari a is an all inclusive legal tradition that creates a seamless web reaching from the public sphere into the private sphere of life Thus the Shari a recognizes no bifurcation between legislation and religion no wall of separation between the mosque and the state and no compartmentalization of morality faith and law Nonetheless the duties under Islamic law can be divided into two large subcategories the first and most important of which mainly concerns the private individual relationship between God and man In contrast the second duty mainly concerns the public transactional relationships among individuals which in a secular framework is most analogous to law Introduction to Islamic Law begins with an overview of Islam as a whole including a discussion of the sources of Islamic law and sectarian distinctions Then the book thoroughly addresses the secondary duties of Islamic law which govern daily transactions between individuals including the law of contracts property banking and finance and familial relations as well as criminal law and procedure and the law of war The legal rules embodied within the Shari a are mandatory in jurisdictions adhering to a strict application of Islamic law However Islamic law remains highly influential even in Muslim majority countries with secular legal codes Nevertheless given recent developments in the Arab world as well as the rise of terrorism in the name of Islam the Shari a is a subject that has seeped into the national dialogue of wholly secular non Muslim jurisdictions Thus Introduction to Islamic Law is offered for scholars and students both Muslim and non Muslim with or without a legal background for the purpose of obtaining a

An Introduction to the Study of Islamic Law Ḥusain Ḥāmid Ḥassān,2010 Islamic Criminal Law and Procedure Matthew Lippman,Seán McConville,Mordecha Yerushalmi,1988-08-08 2 The origins of islamic law Introduction to Islamic Law Alhaji Ajijola,2007 A History of Islamic Law N. J. Coulson,2011 The classic introduction to Islamic law tracing its development from its origins through the medieval period to its place in modern Islam An Introduction to the Study of Islamic Law Ḥusayn Ḥāmid Ḥassān,2010 An Introduction to Al-Islam and Islamic Law Muhamad Muqraby,2013-01-28 Al Islam by linguistic definition is the state of being at peace and security It is a house of peace Al Sharia is part and parcel of Al Islam It is Islamic law It occupies a central role in the Islamic system a role designed to insure and protect peace and security for all Lack of adequate public as well as academic knowledge of and about Al Sharia is prevalent and is underscored by the inability of thousands of authors in various languages to come to grips with its nature Most of them define Al Sharia as religious law They do so because they interpret Al Islam as a religion just like Christianity and try to apply to it principles and doctrines that various Christian churches have come either to accept or to reject A case in point is the doctrine of separation of church and state which when applied to Al Islam serves to de legitimize Al Sharia Hence any call for reinstating Al Sharia is adamantly rejected as an affront to secularism and modernity The author a jurist educated in Western universities a Doctor of the Science of Law from Columbia University a former law lecturer and a well known human rights defender demonstrates that Al Islam is not a mere religion in the Christian sense but religion and religious worship and belief are parts of it Al Islam is a universal system that cannot be separated from Al Sharia for Al Sharia embodies and upholds a number of general principles of law and aims to insure peace and protect all inalienable individual rights cherished by Al Islam He compares those rights with rights upheld under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights the American Declaration of Independence and the French Declaration of the Rights of man and the Citizen In the process the author demonstrates how Al Sharia embodies and upholds a rule of law that ranks above kings and all other sovereigns He argues that the full application of Al Sharia which recognizes the bounds or hudood of Allah does not require the rise of one Islamic State to do the job nor will it prevent Islamic states from co existing in peace and cooperation with each other as well as with non Islamic states that are willing and agreeable to joining a peace for all humans without discrimination The conclusion is inevitable that Al Islam cannot be itself without Al Sharia and therefore denial of Al Sharia is in truth denial of Al Islam
