An Island Of English Teaching Esl In Chinatown:

An Island of English Danling Fu, 2003 Newly arrived Chinese immigrant students face the hardest imaginable situation in the classroom most often this is the only place where they can listen to and practice English having little if any opportunity to do so at home The burden is then on the teacher to further these students English education and at the same time create a classroom environment that appreciates and respects their culture and language Danling Fu has experienced these difficulties firsthand as a teacher as a student and as a parent In An Island of English she brings together her extensive research in New York's Chinatown where she worked as a literacy consultant at the Dr Sun Yat Sen Middle School her personal story as an immigrant and the stories of her son as an immigrant student She extends her findings to other immigrant populations and applies her keen research talents to devise practical recommendations for educators and policymakers

The Migrant Maternal Schultes Anna Kuroczycka, 2016 This edited volume explores how and why immigrant refugee mothers experiences differ due to the challenges posed by the migration process but also what commonalities underline immigrant refugee mothers lived experiences This book will add to the field of women's studies the much needed discussion of how immigrant and refugee mothers lives are dependent on cultural environmental and socio economic circumstances The collection offers multiple perspectives on migrant mothering by including ethnographic and theoretical submissions along with mothers personal narratives and literary analyse The Power of Resistance Rowhea M.
