An Unendurable Love:

The Virtue Ethics of Hume and Nietzsche Christine Swanton, 2015-02-26 This ground breaking and lucid contribution to the vibrant field of virtue ethics focuses on the influential work of Hume and Nietzsche providing fresh perspectives on their philosophies and a compelling account of their impact on the development of virtue ethics. A ground breaking text that moves the field of virtue ethics beyond ancient moral theorists and examines the highly influential ethical work of Hume and Nietzsche from a virtue ethics perspective. Contributes both to virtue ethics and a refreshed understanding of Hume's and Nietzsche's ethics. Skillfully bridges the gap between continental and analytical philosophy. Lucidly written and clearly organized allowing students to focus on either Hume or Nietzsche. Written by one of the most important figures contributing to virtue ethics today.

Reinhold Niebuhr; His Religious, Social, and Political Thought Charles W. Kegley, 2009-12-01 This collection of essays by world scholars of different faiths and fields of study eloquently documents the importance and continuing influence of Niebuhr's extensive body of work. Following an intellectual autobiography by Niebuhr are twenty essays forming a candid and vigorous discussion spanning the range of Niebuhr's thought. Since Niebuhr first came to the world's attention as a critic of social conditions the book begins with an examination of his social thought especially as a Christian ethicist proceeding from this to the political sphere. Further essays offer critical exposition, criticism and questions on such topics as Niebuhr's philosophy of history, his role in American political thought and life, his theology and the historical roots of his thought. For this new edition there are updated essays by John Bennett, Arthur Schlesinger Jr and Kenneth Thompson plus new interpretations by Ronald Stone and Richard Fox. Other contributors include Paul Tillich, Emil Brunner and Abraham I Heschel. A bibliography of Niebuhr's work has been brought up to date by D B Robertson.

Logic and Life Henry Scott Holland, 1882 Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum, 1990-11-15 This volume brings together Nussbaum's published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy. The papers, many of them previously inaccessible to non-specialist readers, deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues, the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self-knowledge. Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules. She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical. It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms. Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements

Sabine Baring Gould,1890    New York Supreme Court: Appellate Divison-First Department: Mary Carr, Against The Merchants Union Ice Company ,    Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt,2020 Love s Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard s discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean s Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger s South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan s Atonement    Bulletin of the State Normal School, Duluth, Minnesota ,1910    The Works of Anatole France in an English Translation Anatole France,1924    The Works of Anatole France Anatole France,1924    Christopher Lionel Josaphare,1921    TIME: A MONTHLY MISCELLANY OF INTERESTING AND AMUSING LITERATURE ,1884    The Works of Booth Tarkington ... Booth Tarkington,1928    American Illustrated Magazine ,1906    Sixpenny magazine of fiction, Monthly magazine of fiction double number Magazine of fiction,1903    The Public School Journal of California ,1927    Scribner's Monthly ,1900
