Howard Caygill

An Urban World:

The Urban World J. John Palen, 1981 This text presents a cross cultural look at cities and suburbs around the world It offers an overview of the changing urban scene covering evolving patterns and the changing nature of urban life It provides coverage of women in metropolitan areas

Urban World/Global City David Clark, 2004-06-01 This book identifies and accounts for the characteristics of the contemporary city and of urban society It analyzes the distribution and growth of settlements and explores the social and behavioral characteristics of urban living The latest theoretical and empirical developments and insights are synthesized and presented in an accessible and engaging way This second edition has been extensively updated and referenced Each chapter includes sets of learning objectives annotated readings and topics for discussion Well illustrated throughout it will be essential reading for students of geography sociology and development studies and all who seek an understanding of how the urban world has evolved and how it will change in the twenty first century

In The Post-Urban World Tigran Haas, Hans Westlund, 2017-10-16 Winner of the Regional Studies Association s Best Book Award 2018 In the last few decades many global cities and towns have experienced unprecedented economic social and spatial structural change Today we find ourselves at the juncture between entering a post urban and a post political world both presenting new challenges to our metropolitan regions municipalities and cities Many megacities declining regions and towns are experiencing an increase in the number of complex problems regarding internal relationships governance and external connections In particular a growing disparity exists between citizens that are socially excluded within declining physical and economic realms and those situated in thriving geographic areas This book conveys how forces of structural change shape the urban landscape In The Post Urban World is divided into three main sections Spatial Transformations and the New Geography of Cities and Regions Urbanization Knowledge Economies and Social Structuration and New Cultures in a Post Political and Post Resilient World One important subject covered in this book in addition to the spatial and economic forces that shape our regions cities and neighbourhoods is the social cultural ecological and psychological aspects which are also critically involved Additionally the urban transformation occurring throughout cities is thoroughly discussed Written by today s leading experts in urban studies this book discusses subjects from different theoretical standpoints as well as various methodological approaches and perspectives this is alongside the challenges and new solutions for cities and regions in an interconnected world of global economies This book is aimed at both academic researchers interested in regional development economic geography and urban studies as well as practitioners and policy makers in urban development

An Urban World Charles Tilly, 1974

Kafka Howard Caygill, 2017-12-14 By challenging many of the assumptions misguided presuppositions and even legends that have surrounded the legacy and reception of Franz Kafka s work during the 20th century Howard Caygill provides us with a radical new way of reading Kafka Kafka In the Light of the Accident advances a unique philosophical interpretation via the pivotal theme of the accident understood both philosophically and in a broader cultural context that includes the philosophical and sociological basis of accident insurance and the understanding of the concepts of chance and necessity Caygill reveals how Kafka's reception was governed by a series of accidents from the order of Max Brod's posthumous publication of the novels and the correction of misprints to many other posthumous editorial strategies The focus on the accident casts light on the role of media in Kafka's work particularly visual media and above all photography By stressing the role of contingency in his authorship Caygill also fundamentally questions the 20th century view of Kafka's work as kafkaesque Instead of a narration of domination Kafka In the Light of the Accident argues that Kafka's work is best read as a narration of defiance one which affirms often comically the role of error and contingency in historical struggle Kafka's defiance is situated within early 20th century radical culture with particular emphasis lent to the roles of radical Judaism the European socialist and feminist movements and the subaltern histories of the United States and China

Speaking of Satan in Zambia Johanneke

Kroesbergen-Kamps,2023-03-01 In this book it is argued that narratives about Satanism which have become popular in the Christian context of Zambia from the 1990s onwards make cultural sense because of their links to traditional African notions as well as contemporary Christian theologies These narratives also resonate with unease regarding the cultural change which is connected by Zambians to modernity Narratives about Satanism further make personal sense to their narrators the pastors who provide a platform for them and their audiences These arguments contribute to the academic study of religion in Africa in particular of African Christianity and of witchcraft related phenomena as well as to the global study of discourses on Satanism and other conspiracy theories All of these disciplines are related to the topic of Satanism in Zambia but the phenomenon itself has not been discussed at length which makes the existing academic literature incomplete and inadequate The comprehensive focus on the case of narratives about Satanism in Zambia offers new insights and enhances current theoretical reflection The research presented in this book is original carried out during fieldwork spanning from 2012 to 2017 in Zambia and literature study in the years after that Methodologically the research is based on participant observation in churches in which testimonies of ex Satanists were presented as well as participation in the Fingers of Thomas a Roman Catholic group which investigates rumours about Satanism Furthermore it is based on interviews with pastors and students of theology active in the deliverance ministry from Pentecostal as well as mainline churches and also on interviews with people who have had experiences of Satanism Finally the research is based on an analysis of collected testimonies of ex Satanists as they were presented in these interviews in churches on radio programmes in newspapers and in other sources
