The Diary of Anais Nin, 1931-1934 Anais Nin, 1969-03-19 The acclaimed author details her bohemian life in 1930s Paris including her famous affair with Henry Miller in the classic first volume of her diaries Born in France to Cuban parents Anais Nin began keeping a diary at the age of eleven and continued the practice for the rest of her life Confessional scandalous and thoroughly absorbing her diaries became one of the most celebrated literary projects of the twentieth century Writing candidly of her marriages and affairs including those with psychoanalyst Otto Rank and author Henry Miller Nin presents a passionate and detailed record of a modern woman's journey of self discovery Edited and with an introduction by Gunther Stuhlmann this celebrated first volume begins in the winter of 1931 and ends in the fall of 1934 It covers an auspicious time in Nin's life from when she is about to publish her first book to her decision to leave Paris for New York      Anais Nin Maryanne Raphael, 2003-07 For readers unfamiliar with her subject Maryanne Raphael's biography Anais Nin The Voyage Within is a sensitive uncomplicated introduction to the life and work of one of the 20th century's most quintessentially feminine artists For Nin devotees the biography is a refresher course taking us back through the vast material of the Diaries and novels that enchanted and inspired our love Raphael accepts Nin entirely on her own terms Thanks to a warm personal relationship with Rupert Pole Nin's surviving husband and executor of her estate Raphael opens up some of the mystery that has hitherto surrounded Nin's relationship with her husbands an aspect of Nin's life that was never explicitly described in the original Diaries The result is a multi dimensional portrait in which Nin's two selves artist and woman are fully integrated Nin the woman consciously chooses to realize female desire give form to female imagination always loving as she remains completely focused on birthing a new unabashedly feminine literature Thank you Maryanne Dolores Brandon Author of IN THE SHADOW OF MADNESS A Memoir      Letters to Anais Nin Henry Miller, Anais Nin, Gunther Stuhlmann, 1965      [The Journals of Anais Nin ... Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Creative People at Work Doris B. Wallace, Howard E. Gruber, 1992-06-25 To demystify creative work without reducing it to simplistic formulas Doris Wallace and Howard Gruber one of the world s foremost authorities on creativity have produced a unique book exploring the creative process in the arts and sciences The book s original evolving systems approach treats creativity as purposeful work and integrates cognitive emotional aesthetic and motivational aspects of the creative process Twelve revealing case studies explore the work of such diverse people as William Wordsworth Albert Einstein Jean Piaget Anaïs Nin and Charles Darwin The case study approach is discussed in relation to other methods such as biography autobiography and psychobiology Emphasis is given to the uniqueness of each creative person the social nature of creative work is also treated without losing the sense of the individual A final chapter considers the relationship between creativity and morality in the nuclear age In addition to developmental psychologists and cognitive scientists this study offers fascinating insights for all readers interested in the history of ideas scientific discovery artistic innovation and the interplay of intuition inspiration and purposeful work

Incest Anaïs Nin, 1993-09-16 The trailblazing memoirist and author of Henry June recounts her relationships with Henry Miller and others including her own father Ana s Nin wrote in her uncensored diaries like they were a broad minded confidante with whom she shared the liberating psychosexual dramas of her life In this continuation of her notorious Henry June she recounts a particularly turbulent period between 1932 and 1934 and the men who dominated it her protective husband her therapist and the poet Antonin Artaud However most consuming of all is novelist Henry Miller a man whose genius said Ana s was so demonic it could drive people insane Here too recounted in extraordinary detail is the sexual affair she had with her father At once loving exciting and vengeful it was the ultimate social transgression for which Ana s would eventually seek absolution from her analysts Before Lena Dunham there was Ana s Nin Like Dunham she s been accused of narcissism sociopathy and sexual perversion time and again Yet even that comparison undercuts the strangeness and bravery of her work for Nin was the first of her kind And like all truly unique talents she was worshipped by some hated

Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok, 2017-02-15

Ana s Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin s guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin s celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin s celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin s writing identity public image and consumer culture
