An Unamerican Lady:

An Unamerican Lady Jane Foster, 1980 Propaganda Girls Lisa Rogak, 2025-03-04 The incredible untold story of four women who spun the web of deception that helped win World War II Betty MacDonald was a 28 year old reporter from Hawaii Zuzka Lauwers grew up in a tiny Czechoslovakian village and knew five languages by the time she was 21 Jane Smith Hutton was the wife of a naval attach living in Tokyo Marlene Dietrich the German American actress and singer was of course one of the biggest stars of the 20th century These four women each fascinating in her own right together contributed to one of the most covert and successful military campaigns in WWII As members of the OSS their task was to create a secret brand of propaganda produced with the sole aim to break the morale of Axis soldiers Working in the European theater across enemy lines in occupied China and in Washington D C Betty Zuzka Jane and Marlene forged letters and official military orders wrote and produced entire newspapers scripted radio broadcasts and songs and even developed rumors for undercover spies and double agents to spread to the enemy And outside of a small group of spies no one knew they existed Until now In Propaganda Girls bestselling author Lisa Rogak brings to vivid life the incredible true story of four unsung heroes whose spellbinding achievements would change the course of history Studies in Intelligence ,2016 OSS Operation Black Mail Ann Todd, 2017-09-15 OSS Operation Black Mail is the story of a remarkable woman who fought World War II on the front lines of psychological warfare Elizabeth Betty P McIntosh spent eighteen months serving in the Office of Strategic Services in what has been called the forgotten theater China Burma India where she met and worked with characters as varied as Julia Child and Ho Chi Minh Her craft was black propaganda and her mission was to demoralize the enemy through prevarication and deceit and ultimately convince him to surrender Betty and her crew ingeniously obtained and altered personal correspondence between Japanese soldiers and their families on the home islands of Japan She also ordered the killing of a Japanese courier in the jungles of Burma to plant a false surrender order in his mailbag By the time Betty flew the Hump from Calcutta to China she was acting head of the Morale Operations branch for the entire theater overseeing the production of thousands of pamphlets and radio scripts the generation of fiendishly clever rumors and the printing of a variety of faked Japanese Burmese and Chinese newspapers Her strategy involved targeting not merely the Japanese soldier but the man within the son the husband the father She knew her work could ultimately save lives but never lost sight of the fact that her propaganda was a weapon and her intended target the enemy This is not a typical war story The only beaches stormed are the minds of an invisible enemy Often a great deal of time and effort was expended in conception and production and rarely was it known if even a shred reached the hands of the intended recipient The process was opaque on both ends the origin of a rumor or radio broadcast obscured the target elusive For Betty and her friends time on the front lines of psychological warfare in China Burma India rushed by in a cascade of creativity and innovation played out on a stage where a colonial world was ending and chaos awaited Appleton's Magazine ,1908 Women and Patriotism in Jim

Crow America Francesca Morgan, 2005 After the Civil War many Americans did not identify strongly with the concept of a united nation Francesca Morgan finds the first stirrings of national patriotism in the work of black and white clubwomen in the 19th and early 20th centuries The American Claimant, and Other Stories and Sketches Mark Twain, 1896 The World's Famous Women James Parton, 1890 Godey's Lady's Book Louis Antoine Godey, Sarah Josepha Buell Hale, 1893 Includes music Harper's Magazine Henry Mills Alden, Thomas Bucklin Wells, Lee Foster Hartman, Frederick Lewis Allen, 1927 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 Report, Un-American Activities in Washington State Washington (State). Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities, 1959 The Maple Laugh Forever Douglas Barbour, Stephen Scobie, 1981 The Maple Laugh Forever will not tell Canadians whether those crimson maples are still standing along that line of distant hills It will however answer a question troubling the minds of seekers after Canadian identity is there really humour in Canadian literature Can Canadian readers ever expect a good belly laugh or are they doomed forever to take their poetry with solid doses of guilt sobriety and solemnity There is something for everyone in this collection The Maple laugh Forever brings you poets as little known outside their own sphere as Polly Thompson as well as more famous Canadians such as Al Purdy Margaret Atwood Sir Charles G D Roberts and Anonymous there are poems on politics and public life poems on Canlit and Canauthors poems about kids for kids and some poems that no responsible parent will let a kid near There are long poems and a whole section of tiny poems where the humour is short and very sharp There are animal poems lewd poems poems of celebration and a few poems that are obviously the offspring of some very very weird imaginations Who would ever suspect any of those to be lurking in Canadian literature Her Lord and Master Martha Morton, 1912 A Bachelor's Romance Martha Morton, 1912 Investigation of Un-American Propaganda Activities in the United States Estados Unidos. Congress. House. Special committee on un-American activities (1938-1944), 1938
