Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Friel Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O'Casey J.M. Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author's career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume

Ireland in Writing Jacqueline Hurlley, 1998 As the twentieth century draws to a close Ireland in Writing Interviews with Writers and Academics focuses on the textual mapping of the country over the century through the creative energies and intellectual reflections of a selection of writers and educators at the tertiary level The volume is a collection of eleven interviews held by three university teachers and a research assistant all resident in Spain The interviews with both male and female writers and academics who hail from Northern Ireland and the Republic have been conducted over the 1990s The writers were quizzed about their own writing how it came into being who or what they have looked to as inspirational and how their novels short stories poetry and plays relate to Ireland past and present The academics express views on their critical theories and practices on particular areas of interest on English and Irish in Ireland on contemporary writing and cultural dynamics from Friel to Telefís Éireann passing through Field Day the Abbey and the question of a hybrid Irish identity
