Announcements for ... Drake University,1930 Architecture, Power, and Religion David Warburton,2012 This book explores the fundamental question of the origins and nature of monumental religious architecture The principal argument is that the origins of monumental religious architecture were basically aspatial and that the gradual incorporation of functional space into religious architecture can be related to transformations in religious thought Although the discussion ranges across the Old World the argument centers on Egypt and the Egyptian female king Hatshepsut she set the tone for the New Kingdom by tying her legitimacy to Amun and the monuments she built for him This leads into the issues of power and political legitimacy and their relevance to myths The basic contention is that the political ideologies of the Near Eastern Bronze Age contributed fundamentally to what later became the phenomenon we know as religion and that the history of the architecture must be understood in order to understand both religion and architectural space Series Articles on Archaeology Beitrage zur Archaologie Vol 7 Training Missionaries Evelyn Hibbert,Richard Hibbert,2016-09-08 Missionaries must know God be able to relate well to other people understand and engage with another culture and be able to use the Bible in a way that informs all aspects of their lives and ministries Missionary training must address each of these areas if it is to help Christians to be effective in taking the gospel to the ends of the earth Effective training has been shown to prevent people from prematurely leaving the field It also reduces the danger of cross cultural workers uncritically exporting culturally bound forms of Christianity This book details four key areas that every missionary training program whatever its context must focus on developing It shows how these can be holistically addressed in a learning community where trainers and trainees engage in cross cultural ministry together An Outline of Christianity Arthur Samuel Peake,Richard Godfrey Parsons (successively Bishop of Middleton, of Southwark and of Hereford.),1900 An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion Inger Furseth,Pål Repstad,2006-01-01 An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion provides an overview of sociological theories of contemporary religious life Some chapters are organized according to topic Others offer brief presentations of classical and contemporary sociologists from Karl Marx to Zygmunt Bauman and their perspectives on social life including religion Throughout the book illustrations and examples are taken from several religious traditions The Psychology of Religion Charles Conant Josey,1927
