N. Jones,2023-08-01 This two volume book presents cutting edge archaeological research primarily as practiced in the Eastern Mediterranean region These volumes key foci are inspired by the work of Thomas E Levy Volume 1 provides an in depth look at new archaeological research in the southern Levant primarily in modern Israel and Jordan inspired by Levy's commitment to understanding social political and economic processes in a long term or deep time perspective Volume 2 focuses on new research in several key areas of 21st century anthropological archaeology and archaeological science Volume 1 is organized around two major themes 1 the later prehistory of the southern Levant or the Neolithic Chalcolithic and Bronze Age and 2 new research in biblical archaeology or the historical archaeology of the Iron Age Each section contains a combination of new perspectives on key debates and studies introducing new research questions and directions Volume 2 is organized around five major themes 1 the archaeology of the Faynan copper ore district of southern Jordan a key region for archaeometallurgical research in West Asia where Levy conducted field research for over a decade 2 new research in archaeometallurgy beyond the Faynan region 3 marine and maritime archaeology focusing on issues of trade and environmental change 4 cyber archaeology an important 21st century field Levy conceived as the marriage of archaeology engineering computer science and the natural sciences and 5 key issues in anthropological archaeological theory In addition to presenting the reader with an up to date view of research in each of these areas the volume also has chapters exploring the connections between these themes e g the maritime trade of metals and cyber digital archaeological approaches to metallurgy The work contains contributions from both up and coming early career researchers and key established figures in their fields This book is an essential reference for archaeologists and scholars in related disciplines working in the southern Levant and the Eastern Mediterranean

Biblical Interpretation Beyond Historicity
Ingrid Hjelm, Thomas Thompson, 2016-01-29 Biblical Interpretation beyond Historicity evaluates the new perspectives that have emerged since the crisis over historicity in the 1970s and 80s in the field of biblical scholarship Several new studies in the field as well as the deconstructive side of literary criticism that emerged from writers such as Derrida and Wittgenstein among others lead biblical scholars today to view the texts of the Bible more as literary narratives than as sources for a history of Israel Increased interest in archaeological and anthropological studies in writing the history of Palestine and the ancient Near East leads to the need for an evidence based history of Palestine This volume analyses the consequences of the question If the Bible is not history what is it then The editors Hjelm and Thompson are members of the Copenhagen School which was formed in the light of this question and the commitment to a new approach to both the history of Palestine and the Bible s place in ancient history This volume features essays from a range of highly regarded scholars and is divided into three sections Beyond Historicity which explores alternative historical roles for the Bible Greek Connections which discusses the Bible s context in the Hellenistic world and Reception which explores extra biblical functions of biblical studies Offering a unique gathering of scholars and challenging new theories Biblical Interpretation beyond Historicity is invaluable to students in the field of Biblical and East Mediterranean Studies and is a crucial resource for anyone working on both the archaeology and history of Palestine and the ancient Near East and the religious development of Europe and the Near East

Biblical Narratives, Archaeology and Historicity Emanuel Pfoh, Lukasz Niesiolowski-Spanò, 2019-11-14 This volume collects essays from an international body of leading scholars in Old Testament studies focused upon the key concepts of the question of historicity of biblical stories the archaeology of Israel Palestine during the Bronze and Iron Ages and the nature of biblical narratives and related literature As a celebration of the extensive body of Thomas L Thompson s work these essays enable a threefold perspective on biblical narratives Beginning with method the contributors discuss archaeology cultural memory epistemology and sociology of knowledge before moving to history historiography and archaeology and close analysis of the Qumran Writings Josephus and biblical rewritings Finally the argument turn to the narratives themselves exploring topics including the possibility of invented myth the genre of Judges and the depiction of Moses in the Qu ran Presenting an interdisciplinary analysis of the historical issues concerning ancient Israel Palestine this volume creates an updated body of reference to fifty years worth of scholarship
