McCormack,Narrelle Morris,2016-08-29 This unique volume provides a detailed analysis of Australia s 300 war crimes trials of principally Japanese accused conducted in the immediate aftermath of the Second World War Part I contains contextual essays explaining why Australia established military courts to conduct these trials and thematic essays considering various legal issues in and historical perspectives on the trials Part II offers a comprehensive collection of eight location essays one each for the physical locations where the trials were held In Part III post trial issues are reviewed such as the operation of compounds for war criminals the repatriation of convicted Japanese war criminals to serve the remainder of their sentences and reflections of some of those convicted on their experience of the trials In the final essay a contemporary reflection on the fairness of the trials is provided not on the basis of a twenty first century critique of contemporary minimum standards of fair trial expected in the prosecution of war crimes but by reviewing approaches taken in the trials themselves as well as from reactions to the trials by those associated with them The essays are supported by a large collection of unique historical photographs maps and statistical materials There has been no systematic and comprehensive analysis of these trials so far which has meant that they are virtually precluded from consideration as judicial precedent This volume fills that gap and offers scholars and practitioners an important and groundbreaking resource Her week's amusement, by the author of 'Phyllis'.
