Atrocity Exhibition:

The Empire's of J. G. Ballard David Ian Paddy, 2015-08-25 J G Ballard once declared that the most truly alien planet is Earth and in his science fiction he abandoned the traditional imagery of rocket ships traveling to distant galaxies to address the otherworldliness of this world The Empires of J G Ballard is the first extensive study of Ballard's critical vision of nation and empire of the political geography of this planet Paddy examines how Ballard's self-perceived status as an outsider and exile the Sheppertonian from Shanghai generated an outlook that celebrated worldliness and condemned parochialism This book brings to light how Ballard wrestled with notions of national identity and speculated upon the social and psychological implications of the post-war transformation of older models of empire into new imperialisms of consumerism and globalization Presenting analyses of Ballard's full body of work with its tales of reverse colonization psychological imperialism the savagery of civilization estranged Englishmen abroad and at home and multinational communities built on crime The Empires of J G Ballard offers a fresh perspective on the fiction of J G Ballard The Empires of J G Ballard An Imagined Geography offers a sustained and highly convincing analysis of the imperial and post-imperial histories and networks that shape and energise Ballard's fictional and non-fictional writings To what extent can Ballard be considered an international writer What happens to our understanding of his post-war science fictions when they are opened up to the language and logics of post-colonialism And what creative and critical roles do the spectres of empire play in Ballard's visions of modernity Paddy follows these and other fascinating lines of enquiry in a study that is not only essential reading for Ballard students and scholars but for anyone interested in the intersections of modern and contemporary literature history and politics Jeanette Baxter Anglia Ruskin University Shanghai made my father Arriving in England after WW2 he was a person of the world who'd witnessed extremes of human experience and remained the outsider observing life from his home in Shepperton 1930s Shanghai Paris of the East was a mix of international sophistication and violence unfettered capitalism and acute poverty American cars martinis and Coca Cola a place marked by death and war It had a profound influence on my father and his imagination Dr Paddy's fascinating book explores my father's fiction within an international context and offers a profound reading of a man who always kept his eyes and mind open to the world Fay Ballard J.G. Ballard Peter Brigg, 1985-01-01 Peter Brigg examines the life and work of British author J G Ballard from his science fiction to his mainstream fiction Starmont Reader's Guide 26 J.G. Ballard, 2016-07-18 An innovative volume of interdisciplinary essays on the significant British writer J G Ballard 1930-2009 exploring the physical cultural and intertextual landscapes in several key novels with a central focus on The Atrocity Exhibition 1970 one of the most challenging texts in contemporary literature Contributors include established critics of Ballard alongside newcomers Different spatial concepts underpin the essays from the landscapes of Ballard's youth in Shanghai and his life in suburban London to nuclear testing spaces and outer space exploration Figurative locations typical of Ballard's work are explored including the beach the motorway the high rise and the shopping mall Textual spaces are explored through Ballard's affiliation with modernist literary forms including surrealist prose writing and collage and poetic romanticism

Grave Desire Steve Finbow, 2014-11-28 Grave Desire is an analysis of the occasions of necrophilia throughout history literature and the arts It is an examination of the breaking of taboos and the metastasizing of fetishes in individuals and cultures using the works of Richard von Krafft Ebing Sigmund Freud Georges Bataille Jacques Lacan Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Slavoj Žižek and others to explore the biographies of known necrophiles such as Carl von Cosel Karen Greenlee and Ed Gein and to analyze the cultures of Ancient Egypt Greece Troy Victorian England and the first to eighth century CE civilization of the Moche people in northern Peru who used necrophilia as a means of religious time travel Throughout the book examples from the works of Herodotus the Metaphysical poets the Marquis de Sade Cormac McCarthy Poppy Z Brite Jrg Buttgereit and more are used for illustration

J.G. Ballard's Surrealist Imagination Jeannette Baxter, 2016-12-05 Making the case that J G Ballard's fictional and non fictional writings must be read within the framework of Surrealism Jeannette Baxter argues for a radical revisioning of Ballard that takes account of the political and ethical dimensions of his work Ballard's appropriation of diverse Surrealist aesthetic forms and political writings Baxter suggests are mobilised to contest official narratives of postwar history and culture and offer a series of counter historical and counter cultural critiques Thus Ballard's work must be understood as an exercise in Surrealist historiography that is politically and ethically engaged Placing Ballard's illustrated texts within this critical framework permits Baxter to explore the effects of photographs drawings and other visual symbols on the reading experience and the production of meaning Ballard's textual spectacles raise a variety of questions about the shifting role of the reader and the function of the written text within a predominantly visual culture while acknowledging the visual contexts of Ballard's Surrealist writings allows a very different historical picture of the author and his work to emerge

Interiors Katarzyna Nowak, Sonia Front, 2010-06-09 The essays gathered in the present collection provide textual explorations of the theoretical borderland between interiors and exteriors undertaken from a variety of perspectives and representing varying approaches and understandings of these terms In the realm of theory the distinction between what we choose to include and what we exclude remains a political choice often fraught with dilemmas that cannot be resolved How to discern between interiors and exteriors Where do we draw dividing lines Do we want to draw them anymore Or alternately can we afford not to divide and discern between the inside and outside between here and there between us and them If the binary divisions so much discredited no longer hold if we must include multiplicity and plurality of readings is any distinction between these dimensions possible Essays collected in the present volume attempt to present a wide plethora of answers to these questions
