Huston,2013-10-22 Foundations of Interpersonal Attraction is intended to provide students of interpersonal relationships with a source book that reviews integrates and elaborates basic material concerned with interpersonal attraction the affectional component of social relationships All interpersonal relationships can be characterized in part by the strength and nature of the affectional tie between the persons involved The ubiquity of attraction phenomena and the extensive data that have begun to emerge concerning its nature antecedents and interpersonal correlates provided the original rationale and impetus behind the development of the book The book contains 16 chapters organized into five parts Part I briefly highlights the history of attraction research and lays out some central themes related to conceptualizing and researching attraction All persons develop attachments through social interaction but the nature and antecedents of such feelings differ depending on the age and cognitive developmental level of the persons involved as well as on the sociocultural context in which the interaction takes place Part II is devoted to detailing these issues Parts III and IV consist of a series of contributions that provide conceptual frameworks for studying attraction Part V is devoted to romantic attraction Managerial Problems of the Woman Executive Ranjini Deraniyagale,1993 Strathmore's Who's Who, 1998-1999 ,1999 Why Companies Do Not Pursue Attractive Mergers and Acquisitions Richard B. Connell,2008 There are substantial bodies of literature that advance theory about why merger and acquisition candidates are found to be unattractive why negotiations are not concluded and why the benefits of companies that are acquired are not realised Little if any research identifies why merger and acquisition opportunities are not pursued in the period after candidates are analysed and found to be attractive but before negotiations begin This study addresses this period by developing a theoretical framework of the variables that intervene to reverse decisions to pursue apparently attractive candidates before negotiations begin and which in doing so result in missed opportunities The study is informed primarily by the strategic management content literature but draws from the strategy process literature including streams in strategic decision making SDM and behavioural decision theory BDT This is a critical book for business scholars that provides an important perspective that has not yet been studied Science Digest ,1985
