Augustus Nero:

Augustus to Nero David Braund,1985      Nero Caesar Augustus David Shotter,2014-06-03 Propelled to power by the age of 17 by an ambitious mother self indulgent to the point of criminality inadequate paranoid and the perpetrator of heinous crimes including matricide and fratricide and deposed and killed by 31 Nero is one of Rome s most infamous Emperors But has history treated him fairly Or is the popular view of Nero as a capricious and depraved individual a travesty of the truth and a gross injustice to Rome s fifth emperor This new biography will look at Nero s life with fresh eyes While showing the man warts and all it also casts a critical eye on the libels which were perpetrated on him such as claiming he was a madman many of which were most probably made up to suit the needs of the Flavians who had overthrown his dynasty      Flattery in Seneca the Younger Martina Russo,2024-04-07 Flattery in Seneca the Younger explores the discourse of flattery in Seneca s philosophical texts and analyses the extent to which Seneca developed a theory of adulation Martina Russo maps a phenomenology of flattery tracing its external manifestations in Senecan philosophy The personal practice of flattery displayed in the Ad Polybium and in De clementia along with the distant exempla of flattery represented by Seneca and with the theorization of adulation indicates the range and the complexity of strategic flattery during the Julio Claudian dynasty Furthermore it is argued that Seneca emerges not only as a practitioner of flattery but also as a theorist of it While many writers tarnished their reputation by giving in to flattery Seneca was among the few who not only accepted flattery but also advocated it as an essential tool in his own times Nevertheless in Seneca s philosophical prose a constant tension emerges whereas flattery is politically acceptable as an instrument to cope with the absolute power embraced by the princeps the sapiens wise and the proficiens would be wise should be careful because flattery can seriously compromise their path to wisdom By analysing the theory and practice of flattery Russo discusses how passages permeated with the most blatant flattery can be read on a new level by viewing Seneca s philosophical prose as an extended exercise in symbolic projection and figured speech It becomes possible to disclose traces of political criticism behind the facade of the most flagrant flattery

Flavian Responses to Nero's Rome Mark Heerink,Esther Meijer,2025-10-01 In this interdisciplinary volume a team of classicists historians and archaeologists examines how the memory of the infamous emperor Nero was negotiated in different contexts and by different people during the ensuing Flavian age of imperial Rome The contributions show different Flavian responses to Nero s complicated legacy while some aspects of his memory were reinforced others were erased Emphasizing the constant and diverse nature of this negotiation this book proposes a nuanced interpretation of both the Flavian age itself and its relation to Nero s Rome By combining the study of these strategies with architectural approaches archaeology and memory studies this volume offers a multifaceted picture of Roman civilization at a crucial turning point and as such will have something to offer anyone interested in classics ancient history and archaeology      Who's who in Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich,Garry Wotherspoon,2002 500 entries from more than 100 contributors profiling gay and lesbians throughout history ranging from Sappho to Andre Gide most entries are accompanied by a bibliography Jesus in a World of Colliding Empires, Volume One: Introduction and Mark 1:1—8:29 Mark J. Keown,2018-03-20 At the time of Christ world politics was an ebb and flow of colliding empires and forces The world knew only dynastic succession and rule by force Israel was swept up in this world Her expectations of deliverance while diverse had in common the anticipation of violent liberation by an alliance of God the expected one Theo and Israel s forces Her vision included the subjugation of the world to Yahweh Any messianic claimant would be expected to fulfill this hope Mark s story of Jesus must be read against such expectations of military power Mark knows that Jesus plan of salvation differed radically from this Rather than liberation through revolution it involved deliverance through humble loving service and cross bearing However the disciples follow Jesus but do not understand Jesus purpose They constantly expect war So the Gospel is then read from Mark s full understanding and the disciples flawed perspective In volume two of Jesus in a World of Colliding Empires Keown continues to unpack Mark s Gospel 8 30 16 8 in which Jesus teaches the disciples what it means to be a Servant Messiah rather than a military conqueror The then draws a range of conclusions and applications from Mark for life today Augustus to Nero David Braund,1985 *Catalogue of the ... collection of coins and medals of ...
