Auntie Rita:

Aboriginal Women's Narratives Nadja Zierott, 2005 Due to widespread geographical and cultural displacement Australian Aboriginal people have experienced the destruction of their identity This identity is traditionally closely linked to the land and the people so that Aborigines feel an intense longing to rediscover their roots and reclaim their identity In order to do this they need to individually reconstruct their past for instance by writing down their life stories Thus Aboriginal women like Ruby Langford Ginibi have embarked on a process of reconnecting with their roots through the medium of autobiography In discussing three of these autobiographies this book examines the role of autobiographical narrative in the process of Australian Aboriginal women reclaiming their identity

Lizzie and Lucky: The Mystery of the Lost Chicken Megan Rix, 2023-09-14 Shortlisted for the Inclusive Books for Children Award 2024 Join young detective Lizzie and her adorable puppy Lucky on another mystery solving adventure With charming illustrations throughout and fun activities to try Lizzie and Lucky are visiting the Five Freedoms Sanctuary It s a lovely place for all sorts of rescued animals When a local farmer announces some terrible plans for his land that could endanger the surrounding wildlife our dynamic duo know they must investigate the case Can they use their detective skills to stop him While looking for clues Lizzie spots some strange footprints and an unusual blue creature that stands out from the rest But what is it and where did it come from Could it be the key to saving the day Praise for the Lizzie Lucky books The author s experience of partial deafness shines through with helpful but gentle hints about the importance of accessibility and equality Above all this is a joyous tale celebrating animals mysteries family and friendship both of the two legged and four legged variety BookTrust

Caught Between Cultures, 2021-07-26 The essays in this collection on Canada the USA Australia and the UK question and discuss the issues of cross cultural identities and the crossing of boundaries both geographical and conceptual All of the authors have experienced cross culturalism directly and are conscious that positions of double vision which allow the to participate

positively in two or more cultures are privileges that only a few can celebrate Most women find themselves caught between cultures They become involved in a day to day struggle in an attempt to negotiate identities which can affirm the self and at the same time strengthen the ties which unites the self with others Theoretical issues on cross culturalism therefore can either liberate or constrict the The essays here illustrate how women s writing negotiates this dualism through a colourful and complex weaving of words thoughts and experiences both pleasurable and painful into texts quilts rainbows The metaphors abound The connecting thread through their writing and indeed in these essays is the concept of belonging a theoretical emotional composite of being and longing Home too assumes a variety of meanings it is no longer a static geographical place but many places It is also a place elsewhere in the imagination a mythic place of desire linked to origin Policies of multiculturalism can throw up more problems than they solve In Canada the difficulties surrounding the cross cultural debate have given rise to a state of messy imbroglia Notions of authenticity move dangerously close to essentialist identities Double vision is characteristic of peoples who have been uprooted and displaced such as Australian Aboriginal writers of mixed race abducted during childhood Passing for black or white is full of complications as in the case of Pauline Johnson who passed as an authentic Indian People with hyphenated citizenship such as Japanese Canadian can be either free of national ties or trapped in subordination to the dominant culture in these visible minorities it is the status of being female or coloured female that is so often ultimately rendered invisible Examination of Canadian anthologies on cross cultural writing by women reveals a crossing of boundaries of gender and genre race and ethnicity and in some cases national boundaries in an attempt to connect with a diasporic consciousness Cross cultural women writers in the USA may stress experience and unique collective history while others prefer to focus on aesthetic links and literary connections which ultimately silence difference Journeying from the personal space of the into the collective space of the we is exemplified in a reading of texts by June Jordan and Minnie Bruce Pratt For these writers identity is in process It is a painful negotiation but one which can transform knowledge into action

Potent Mana Wende Elizabeth Marshall, 2012-01-02 Brilliantly elucidating and weaving together the forces of indigenous sovereignty colonialism and personal health Potent Mana offers a uniquely holistic and intimate portrait of the long term effects of colonialism on an indigenous people the k naka maoli Native Hawaiians An ethnographic exploration based on fifteen months of research the book moves the conversation on the dangerous effects of colonialism forward by exploring the theories and practices of Native Hawaiians engaged in decolonization Decades of substance abuse mental illness depression language loss and the concomitant dispossession from sacred lands have accompanied colonialism Consequently healing both mental and physical are essential to decolonization and indigenous sovereignty in twenty first century Hawai i Native Hawaiian run treatment centers and clinics more than political rallies are centers for healing and decolonization on O ahu today The effects of colonialism and the measures taken to counter and move beyond it as Wende Marshall convincingly argues do not take place solely on a supralocal level but shatteringly involve the physical and emotional well being of real individuals Becoming decolonized is about overcoming the shame of colonialism and requires a process of remembering the traditions of ancestors and reinterpreting and rewriting histories that have only been told from a colonial point of view Decolonization is an indigenous perspective and an understanding that health was impossible without political power and cultural integrity Puloma and the Bear Jasbinder Bilan,2025-03-13 Puloma must summon all of her strength and courage to rescue a captive bear from the circus in this gripping adventure from award winning author Jasbinder Bilan Ladies' Home Journal ,1922 Auntie Rita Rita Huggins,Jackie Huggins,1994 Most people call me Auntie Rita whites as well as Aboriginal people Auntie is a term of respect of our older women folk You don t have to be blood related or anything Everyone is kin That s a beautiful thing because in this way no one is ever truly alone they always have someone they can turn to Rita Huggins told her memories to her daughter Jackie and some of their conversation is in this book We witness their intimacy their similarities and their differences the fighting with their tongues Two voices two views on a shared life Outing; Sport, Adventure, Travel, Fiction ,1908 Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly ,1882 Outing ,1899 American Illustrated Magazine ,1882 Happy hour series of popular stories [afterw.] Happy hour stories no ,1903 The National Temperance Mirror ,1883 Go Down to Silence G.K.
