you to live In this powerful collection Amy Leigh Wicks takes the reader on a literal journey from New York City to Wellington and Kaikoura and on an emotional journey from youth into the dangerous country of love and marriage Wicks produces sharp sensory poems that circle around love and commitment migration and isolation With a powerful narrative and emotional arc this collection introduces us to an important new voice in New Zealand poetry The dark ocean from the window is still the waves are sparkling as in photographs and all I can think is how I want to cut through the sun setting on the purple horizon with a pair of big scissors

How to Live Helen Rickerby, 2019-08-15 A new poetry collection that takes readers among the unsilent women from Hipparchia to J K Rowling Women who speak have always been monstrous That twisty sphinx those tempting sirens better plug your ears with wax boys Where are the female philosophers Why are women silenced Who can tell us how to live In her fourth collection of poetry Helen Rickerby takes readers on a journey into women s writing a quest for philosophical answers and an investigation of poetic form The poems in How to Live engage in a conversation with the unsilent women Hipparchia and George Eliot Ban Zhao and Mary Shelley They do so in order to explore philosophical and practical questions how one could or should live a good life how to be happy how to not die how to live Rickerby thinks through the ways that poetry can build up and deconstruct a life how the subtext and layers inherent in poetry can add to the telling of a life story and how different perspectives can be incorporated into one work the place where poetry meets essay where fiction meets non fiction where biography meets autobiography where plain speaking meets lyricism where form pushes against digression The work is witty Perhaps I should ban perhaps and self reflexive Am I afraid that if I let the words leak out they ll mix with oxygen and become prose as Rickerby draws on the intensity symbolism and layering of poetic form using poetry as a space of exploration of ideas of thinking of essaying

New New Zealand Poets in Performance Jack Ross, Jan Kemp, 2008 From Anne Kennedy to Andrew Johnston Jenny Bornholdt to Glenn Colquhoun New New Zealand Poets in Performance celebrates the rich jangle of clashing ideas voices and genders that combine to make contemporary culture It collects the work of 28 young and mid career poets who came to prominence in the 1980s 1990s and early 2000s notable for their variety their fresh approaches to poetic form and subject and their distinctive but complementary voices This book is a follow up and companion to the bestselling Classic New Zealand Poets in Performance and Contemporary New Zealand Poets in Performance Editors Jack Ross and Jan Kemp have selected and presented on two CDs material largely from the Aotearoa New Zealand Poetry Sound Archive completed in 2004 There are more than two hours of poets reading their own work and the accompanying book prints the texts of the poems as they have been read Selected bibliographies and short biographies for each poet are also included as well as an appendix of variant readings
